

The Cosmic Birth

The Life and Works of

Frances Fisher Sande,

The Reincarnate Mother of the Last Age

A New Age Publication

The Cosmic Birth

The Life and Works of Frances Fisher Sande,
The Reincarnate Mother of the Last Age

1905-1994

“Opening of the Ways” for the New Age

Contents

Foreword		4
Chapter I.	1905-1918 – The Early Years Phenomenal Childhood	5
Chapter II.	Healing and Other Miracles	7
Chapter III.	Easter, 1936 – “Aja the Unborn” First Phase of the Cosmic Birth	8
Chapter IV.	The Negative Leader Incarnation of Lucifer in the Last Age	9
Chapter V.	A. 1951 – The “Call” Her Mission Explained B. Frances is “Spotted” by the Negative Leader “Forty and Two Months” of Persecutions Begin, From June, 1951, to December, 1954	11 12
Chapter VI.	December, 1954 – Armageddon Avoided Second Phase of the Cosmic Birth	15
Chapter VII.	Easter Sunday, 1955 – The Child is “Caught Up” To God and His Throne Third and Final Phase of the Cosmic Birth Postponed	16

Chapter VIII.	Summer of 1955 – World Tour Finding the Chosen Ones and Discovering “Truth” Records	19
Chapter IX.	Autumn of 1955 – Persecutions Continue	23
Chapter X.	October, 1955 – Lucifer’s Cosmic Power is Revoked for a Thousand Years	25
Chapter XI.	Working for World Peace	29
Chapter XII.	1957 – Frantically Trying to Secure “A Safe Place To Lay HIS Head” Attempts at Recruiting Enough Called and Chosen End in Failure	31
Chapter XIII.	1958-1994 – Interdenominational Divine Order Comes To Support the Work of the Reincarnate Mother Many More Miracles Take Place	34
Chapter XIV.	The “Second Coming,” - “HIS Final Advent” Third and Final Phase of the Cosmic Birth	41
Addendum.	The Book of Lives of the Two Chosen by God to Lead Humanity Toward a “New Heaven and a New Earth, with Former Things Passed away.”	43

Foreword

The First Phase of The Child's "Cosmic Birth" was "the production of a body for HIM by Frances Fisher Sande, the reincarnate Gabriel-soul, in April 1936. The Second Phase of The Child's "Cosmic Birth" took place in late 1954 to stop a bomb at the moment it would have been detonated. Then, on Easter Sunday, April 10th, 1955 when, because of dangers from the "great dragon" personality who "stood to swallow up The Child," it was necessary for HIM to be "caught up" from the physical plane until more adequate preparation could be made for HIS reception and protection.

The Third and Final Phase of the "Cosmic Birth" has taken place on D DAY, when the skies were filled with the glory of HIS return. This marked the beginning of a time when "all eyes could SEE HIM." A great machine started rolling and the world can now begin to understand that HE has incarnated for the work of this the New Age. It took approximately eighteen months from the time HE returned, when the CHOSEN were the first to SEE Him, and the Day HE dared to disclose Himself physically for all to acclaim.

Frances Fisher Sande, The Mother of the Last Age, passed from this plane in 1994. Her next incarnation has taken place and God has released His Holy Son to His Mother.

This is THEIR story...

This Book is largely a montage of excerpts drawn from the nine Booklets and 81 "Truth" Newsletters found on the Website (www.alittlechildtoleadthem.com) that illustrate, in biographical form, the chronology of events in the Life of The Reincarnate Mother during the Last Age, as she "Opened the Ways" for the New Age which is now upon us.

Prior to the period of Silence which began in the late nineteen sixties, Frances Sande was told by "The Boys Upstairs," as she affectionately used to call Them, that They wanted her to write the story of her life. As it turned out, she was too busy living it, and "going about Her Father's business" to actually find the time to sit down and write about her life.

It turns out that all the pieces of the story were actually incorporated within, and interwoven into the fabric of the Booklets and Newsletters which were published over the span of thirteen years, under her guidance and leadership, as well as from talks she gave. The Booklet, "A Life and Work with Men from Outer Space" was the starting point which served as the framework for the story. Then, little by little, the pieces fell into place, just like the "thirteen pieces of Osiris¹" which were fitted together during the life of Frances.

What you are about to read may seem too fantastic at times, but these are the true accounts of what has been witnessed.

Footnote No. 1: Thirteen pieces of Osiris - The physical counterpart of Lucifer, whose name was Isis, confused the plan for that Age and cut Osiris (Christ) into thirteen pieces (cut the Disciples away from their Master) to spoil the Plan for that Age. The story credits "the Second Isis," or soul later known as Virgin Mary, the Mother, who tried to find the Disciples. She built a shrine wherever she found one of them. During the Last Age, the reincarnate Mother found all twelve of the missing pieces, after they had been cut away from the Plan for that Age before October 1955, and restored each one for work to come in the New Age. She discovered the thirteenth piece was herself. Esoterics can now understand the significance of this statement "in that Day", now that The Advent has taken place.

Chapter I.

1905-1918 – The Early Years

Phenomenal Childhood

This story begins in 1905, on February 7th, which identifies her with Apollo, the Greek God of Healing. Frances Fisher was born in a very secluded place in the mountains of Idaho, the only evidence of something unusual happening, being a very bright star in the skies which was noted in a number of publications in that year. Because Frances' work with Men from Outer Space (Angels) makes a most fantastic story we feel it necessary to explain her early life which will show that some people must be reincarnated for special work and there is nothing anyone can do to change the course of a life so dedicated.

When her mother's first baby came, she declared this was not the child she had seen in dreams and visions but when the second child was born, she said it was the one. There were some funny marks on the skull, the child was different. At ten days of age that child did the same as Buddha when ten days old, except for announcing the soul status; the baby leaped to a sitting position as if frightened about something and in a few minutes dropped back again. By the time Frances was two years old her father found it amusing to challenge her with various taunts to hear what her answers would be. He nicknamed her "Chosie", her sister called her "Freak" or "Feathers" and her brother called her "The Detective" because nothing could be hidden from her. Her mother called her "Psyche" and "Cyclone Sixty." She called herself Doubles Divide because there seemed to be several of them living in the same form. When very young she called it Me, Myself and I for lack of the esoteric understanding she received later in life.

At a very early age she told things her father threatened to spank her for because they were so exaggerated. Her mother defended her because she found reason to believe they were dreams. With the doors of the house locked Frances could go and come without help from her family. She was a very happy child for she had two companions² who were very near, making life easy and pleasant for her. Something she was to do in later life was explained and she spent many hours trying to figure out how anyone could accomplish such a difficult thing and be understood by other people. She was afraid to mention anything about it to her parents because she was already considered different from the other children. She wondered about her mission so much that her companions decided to give her a lesson to lead her to understanding. Frances was about seven years old when she was awakened one night and shown something like a movie screen projected on the wall just above her bed. A newspaper appeared on the screen with a symbol printed on it. She tried to read the print but could see nothing clearly except the symbol. She sat up and made sure she saw what she saw and even felt the wall with her hands. The light finally disappeared and she settled down to wonder what this could be.

Frances was happy at school because she didn't have to learn anything as it seemed she already knew it. Her teachers favored her and she was given things to do while she waited for the others to learn their lessons. When it came to poetry and prose or beautiful writings, she read them over and whole lessons were memorized without any effort. When six years old her teacher gave her some raffia to work with and she turned out a very unusual little basket in a few minutes. The ability seemed to be something of a memory from a past life when she had done this kind of work.

Footnote No. 2: Companions - During her childhood, Frances thought of her two Teachers, the Archangels Michael and Gabriel, as her companions, and later as Angels.

The most wonderful things took place in her dreams. Unlike other children who dislike going to bed, she was always happy to have a chance at new experiences of her nightly doings which left her full of joy.

Miracles started happening when Frances was very young. Anything she put her hand to took shape easily. She loved babies so much that she became very popular as a baby-sitter who did not tire of working without any remuneration except the pleasure of it. Once when caring for a baby a little friend asked to take the infant to swing with her. She lost hold of the child and as it was thrown through the air, Frances' hand picked up a pillow from the baby carriage and tossed it under the body of the falling infant who was unhurt. The mother who saw the near accident asked her how she could throw the pillow just right. She did not know at the time herself as it seemed so automatic. Later she understood it was one of the Angels who had charge over her, who used her hand to throw the pillow and guided it to save the baby.

Another time a little Catholic girl lost a precious religious cross in a hayloft. The mother grieved much about the loss. Frances prayed and was led to find it easily. The size of the loft and amount of hay made it quite impossible to find anything so small without the help of her companions. Another incident occurred when a little girl fell on a baby chicken and mashed it. Frances picked up the dead chicken, enclosed it in her hands and prayed. In a few minutes the chicken was restored to life. It was given to her with no little comments from the owner. She carried it home, took a hen from the roost and prayed for her to cluck and raise it. As usual her prayers were answered and this was considered another miracle.

In 1918 a move to Magic Valley, Idaho, was made as a follow-up into "marked places." Then began the cooperation with other higher-ranking souls of the Hierarchy incarnating in the Magic Valley area.

Chapter II.

Healing and Other Miracles

Frances learned to think of the “Angels” as her “Teachers.” At times when they brought certain prophecies to her attention, she was told she was to play a part in the fulfillment. She kept thinking this could be her imagination and that any person might believe such things meant himself. There were many repetitions of the same lesson until she began to wonder if she really knew what she knew. She pondered and wondered, and meditated constantly upon the problem of accomplishing her mission and just how she was going to do it. She was not interested in ordinary pleasures others enjoyed. She had something in mind she was afraid to share with anyone.

She was always interested in helping especially where the need was for healing. When she was about twenty, she took two hopeless cases to care for the same night. One was a lady who had been ill for a long time and seemed to have passed away. The other was a tiny baby who didn’t open its eyes and was quite lifeless. The next morning both were restored. The Angels sent her on various healing missions. Once while teaching, she was called from the classroom to “go to the office.” The principal’s nephew had been ill for a long time and she had been called home because the child was dying. Frances wrote a note to the principal saying, “Your God is my God, if you will kneel and pray David will be all right.” The child was healed.

Another time a little boy had been scalded. Immediately he was unconscious and the doctor declared there was no chance. Frances was sent to the door the next day to tell the mother if she would do as she told her the child would be all right. She asked the woman to turn him over to God and do nothing else but pray. The mother asked no questions and was very obedient. The child remained unconscious long enough to keep him from suffering. Frances went each Sunday afternoon to sit by the bedside and pray. He was back in school in seven weeks, the skin being replaced without any material aid. After this she worked on a case of a child whose hips were broken. He recovered rapidly.

One morning when Frances was ready for church one of her Teachers said, “Pick up the Sunday paper.” She did not respond immediately because she didn’t like to confuse her mind with material ideas before going to church. She almost believed the direction could have come from a negative source. She was called the second time and even the third before she obeyed. On the front page she saw the account of a family friend’s child being in the hospital. She rushed to the telephone to ask what had happened. The mother of the child responded by saying they just had a call that their daughter was dying and they were leaving for the hospital. She said, “Whatever that is you do for people, please do it for us.” The child was healed. The mother came to Frances’ home to ask what she could do to show her gratitude. Frances told her to make herself an instrument through which such things could be accomplished.

Chapter III.

Easter 1936 – “Aja the Unborn”

First Phase of the Cosmic Birth

Her work with Men from Outer Space (Angels) grew until it had many angles. Frances was sent on a number of missions helping with Their plans for earth, looking over various situations and helping the “Called” understand what was happening to them. She was told that she would have to have some children to do God’s work. Frances Fisher became Mrs. Frances Sande after she married Peer Sande. When she was expecting each of her three children, she prayed many hours a day while carrying each one. She asked for their hands to do His work and their feet to walk in His way. They were born with extrasensory perception which will be a necessity for coping with problems of advancing times. It seemed that evil forces were at play which made having a child very difficult for Frances. She made a very special dedication and pledge to God before it became possible for her to have her first child. The disappointment was very great when nothing medical science knew about could force the birth of The Child and He had to be taken by instruments; there was no life in the body. That was three days before Easter 1936.

Just as her mother had been told about her, Frances had been told about this child who would be Chosen for a great service to mankind. When the body was received the tongue was out to the chin and it was believed he had strangled. Other phenomenal things happened concerning the child even after he was buried. Frances put a stone on his grave. The next day it was found at the keeper’s house and nobody knew how it got there. She said to the keeper to replace it. Michael said, “Do not mark death.” Frances replied, “I know he is not dead but I want to mark the grave.”

The next day after the replacement the keeper was approaching the grave to see if the stone was all right. Just at that moment a bolt of lightning cut a cross off a stone in one end of the cemetery. Then it jumped over some evergreens and struck the keeper in the back of his legs. It took him to his knees without injury. Then it leaped to the other end of the cemetery and picked up the little stone from her baby’s grave, carrying it into the air with much phenomenal lighting of the sky and cemetery fences. Nothing was left of the stone except the symbols which were an ivy leaf and lotus-like water lily.

The very carefully guarded secret of the “first” Advent of the King of Kings (“Aja The Unborn” in Ancient Prophecies) had taken place on Easter Sunday, April 12, 1936. This was the first phase of the Cosmic Birth, the “first Coming” in the Last Age. The “second Coming” was planned to take place at a later date... but only after much more Prophecy would be fulfilled.

The following year, her mother who had been fighting death for five years, told Frances that two angels stood beside her most of the time. They gave her some messages for herself and some for Frances. They explained that she was to go out of her body and come back as her own grandchild. After that she was very anxious to leave the old form. She called in friends to tell the experience, bid them farewell and went happily out of the body expecting to return as her daughter’s child born two years later.

In 1939, Frances had a second child, a baby girl. When Frances’ daughter was about two years old, she had a flash of memory and suddenly stated, “I was your Mother in another world.” The child had a very unusual memory of whom she had been. Without any other possible reason than that certain things had belonged to her before, she had an unusual affinity for objects which were dear to her in the previous life.

Chapter IV.

The Negative Leader

Incarnation of Lucifer in the Last Age

As shocking as it was to some who had known the Negative Leader, Frances felt duty bound to give the facts. The person in question was going by the name of Mary Martha Bowers, formerly known as Mrs. Mary Martha Bowzers. Her “students” from various parts of the world were being drawn to Canada because it is one of the “marked” places where it was possible Christ might first “appear” in the Last Age. There are many other places marked for possibilities of great events in the future, any of which could be the place for Him to “appear.”

Some may have known this deceptive woman as Gwendolyn Green, the adopted daughter of a Long Island millionaire candy man, whose body it is reported Annie Besant took possession of three days after transition in 1933. Annie Besant was the Lucifer “puppet” who had taken over the Theosophical Society forty years earlier after she forced its founder, Helena Petrovna Blavatsky, out of the picture. After passing from the earth plane and recognizing what had happened to again thwart the plan of Michael (known as Kuthumi to the Occult world) and Gabriel (known as Hilarion) who gave her the information incorporated in the original “Isis Unveiled,” Mrs. Blavatsky planned another incarnation, that of Frances Sande, for the express purpose of doing what she had failed to accomplish in her Theosophical life. The plan was to reel out the line and let “the negatively existent One” entangle himself in such a way as to create karmas sufficiently unbalanced to evoke a “thus far” from the Cosmos.

Besant, the most powerful Black Magician in the world, was the author of Occult Chemistry which is worth investigation for those who desire to understand the methods used for secretly destroying Positive workers for Christ. She was known to have been the physical manifestation of Master Morya and she kept his reputation waiting for master organizations to get under way before swallowing them up. Claiming identification with their Leaders, Morya would then secretly work against them behind their backs and exercise his great powers to kill them. When they were out of the picture, he took over to “Shine.”

Annie Besant is known to have moved from her discarded body to one prepared for her in a mortuary three days after her death. When the appropriated body was revived the soul was replaced by Annie Besant who functioned for Master “M” under the new name. No doubt the Green girl was forced out of her body for the express purpose of providing an attractive vehicle for Besant who so much needed it because a pregnancy in the group where Masters were incarnating had failed. Reports are that Gwendolyn Green seemed to arise from the dead three days after she passed, and this was just after Besant gave up the old form. Because the Gwendolyn soul was not in possession of the body when it was revived, there was no interest in the elderly father whom she had been caring for, and Besant ran away with the new body. The father could not understand the great change which had come over his daughter, and disinherited her because of her devilment.

Gwendolyn Green later married a Theodore Bowzers, and became known as Mrs. Lorimer T., or Mary Martha Bowzers.

Mary Bowzers could materialize things out of apparent nothingness, call up negative powers to rock buildings, draw letters from the ethers written by the Negative Space Master, give forth with auras, draw smoke from electric lamps and many other phenomenal things which she used to prove that she was the reincarnate Virgin Mary. “In that day they will pull fire down from heaven to prove they are of God, yet they are not,” is warned in the Bible. Before the eyes of her victims, she appeared a very attractive darling with a marvelous personality. She used her great Magic power to “force” money out of some victims to buy presents with which she bribed others under her control. She claimed to have inherited money but when the big hoax broke it was discovered that many business men lost great sums. Many were impressed with her power to stop a bus at will, wreck cars by mind, and in general were given plenty of evidence to make sure they knew better than to try to expose the racket when they became wise enough to realize that something was being demanded of them which no human law was able to control. Each victim was cleverly “smeared” so nobody would believe him if he tried to talk. Then chakra³ treatments were projected at him to destroy him if possible. If that failed the victim met with a purposely arranged demise.

Perhaps one of the most convincing deceptions which Mary Bowzers was “used” to portray was the “showing” of her incarnation called Morya who looked much like Christ with the beard and robes, and declaring this to be His incarnation when He was known as Kuthumi. This made it seem that she was Mary whose body Christ sometimes manifests through in this Age.

This clever woman has been discovered to have had control and dominating influences in almost every cult and creed on the face of the earth, with many adoring her for her “fire down from heaven” occult trickeries which seemed to prove she was of God, “and yet they are not,” as the Bible declared.

Some formerly very powerful and influential leaders of many occult groups and their trained followers still smart under the rebuffs and rejections of their own efforts to swallow up the work of Frances, as we will see in the next chapter, and her advantages of Hierarchical support which they planned to use for their own promotions. Their “seven and one-half years” of unlimited controls would end “forty-two months” after beginning their intensified persecutions of Frances who, as we will also see shortly, then became their number one target.

After deceptions became too evident in Denver, Mary Bowzers went to Boulder, Colorado, and her name was changed to Mary Martha Bowers by an attorney who worked there. Many more homes, hearts and pocketbooks were plundered and Organizations invaded. Resistance became very great resulting in the Bowers flight to Winnipeg, Canada, with some angry Theosophists after them. There, the evil one’s puppet continued her wake of deceptions.

Footnote No. 3: Chakra - The seven Chakra Centers correspond to the seven centers of energy in the human body. These are the crown, the forehead, the throat, the heart, the solar plexus, the hara located approximately three inches below the navel, and the root which is located at the perineum, the point between the anus and the sex organs.

Chapter V.

A. 1951 – The “Call”

Her Mission Explained

All her life Frances has had very unusual experiences because this is the way the Angels make their students understand. She knew how to “read” Their messages but she never tried to explain her ideas to others whom she knew would not believe her. “God’s ways are past finding out,” but some people find out more because of their missions. “To each will be given,” and each must fit in his place so the wheels of the Great Plan can go around. For many years her Cosmic Teachers had kept before her mind the Bible passage in Mark: 10:29,30 which quotes Jesus as saying, “Verily I say unto you, there is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel’s but he shall receive an hundred-fold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children and lands, with persecutions, and in the world to come eternal life.” Even then it was hard to go when the time came to leave her children, but someone HAD to make the necessary sacrifice.

Frances raised her children telling them that someday she expected to be “Called” and it would be only for Him that she would leave them. The “Call” came as a surprise one day when she was opening her refrigerator. Her Teacher asked, “Will you do this for me?” Her answer was, “Yes, if you will tell me what it is.” She sat down to listen to Him tell her of a mission where she would be required to leave home for a six-week trip. She had taken her children with her on former missions and going without them was a shock because they were quite young. Her Teacher said He would give her some time to make up her mind. One day while Frances was wondering just how she could manage it, her twelve-year-old daughter bravely said, “Mother, tell Him you will go and I will take over at home for you.” This was the beginning of her travels alone. The Angels told her They would make things easy for her family so she could carry out an important mission for Them.

About the time of this Call one of her Teachers visited her one night in the astral body. She had gone to bed early. They were building a new home and above her room was some loose lumber on the floor. She was awakened by something that sounded like the lumber being moved about. In a few minutes someone came down the stairs, leaving several doors open behind Him. He came to her room and stood in the doorway for quite some time without speaking. He was tall. Wearing something of a robe and it seemed He had a beard but being in the astral body Frances could not see Him very well in the dark. He finally asked her to get up and come to the dining room. At the time of the Calling Frances heard the words from Above, “D Day, D Day, D Day,” Looking up in prayer she asked, “What is D-Day, – what does it mean?” The answer came clearly as follows:

“In D Day of understandings,
Thou shalt raise their thoughts to Me,
Mankind shall see correction,
No more evil then shall be.”

He told her about messages that would come with “no wires.” This is what esoterics call “inner hearing.” The Bible speaks of it as “a still small voice.” She listened to Him most of the night. She wrote something which he dictated and wondered much at a very large key which He laid on the table. He said, “Unto Thee I give a key.” It wasn’t of a material nature and seemed to vanish as He left. He talked all night, staying until sunrise the next morning. Certain emergencies existed at the time for which He explained she was reincarnated to meet. When she was almost overwhelmed with the immensity of what she was told she had been “Chosen” for, Christ said, “You were born for this work and We are depending upon you.” He promised “I will be the words in thy mouth,” and she soon found this happening.

After that her Teacher visited her more frequently. One morning He told her to go to a certain church where she would find someone He wanted her to meet. Because her daughter had very keen extra-sensory perception Frances asked her to go along to help her find what she had been told was there. She found an elderly man and invited him home with her. He said he had been in Magic Valley before and had spent ten years searching for the reincarnation of a certain person and he seemed to know that one was herself. He told her there were other people looking for her and said, “When they find you, you will have to ask God to forgive them.” He made her understand that he dared not tell any more and explained that the people of whom he warned had used mental powers to hold him paralyzed for seven years without walking or talking. Frances understood it was to keep him from telling something they didn’t want known.

She was sent to Chicago to revise a short-cut English course she had patented many years before. The patent had run out and a revision was necessary to make a copyright possible. This work had been done under the supervision of her Teachers who planned for it to be used all over the world someday. While in Chicago They had her contact a number of people whom They had sent into incarnation to help with Their work. She was to deliver several messages to Chosen Ones who were falling by the wayside for lack of information to retain faith in their Callings.

B. Frances is “Spotted” by the Negative Leader

“Forty and Two Months” of Persecutions Begin, From June, 1951, to December, 1954

The day before she was to leave Chicago one of her Teachers asked her to go to Wheaton, Illinois to the Theosophical Society and have a look around. Immediately something like unseen forces struck her in the abdomen and spine. This was the beginning of the persecutions Frances would have to endure: “The Holy City (Zion)” as Ancients called The Mother, was then “trampled underfoot for forty and two months” as Biblical prophecy said would be the case. Her Teachers made her understand that something was trying to keep her from finding secrets which They wanted her to have. Because of the intense suffering it was very difficult to go and she could never have made the trip without the help of Those who always stood by when help was needed. They explained that she was allowed to have many trying experiences so she would understand how important it was for the Chosen Ones to be found in their new bodies and awakened to the work that needed to be done.

Frances was brought to see “Antichrist” activities in a most forbidden aspect. Mental forces were being played upon the minds and bodies of victims and there was no physical evidence to prove anything. The way to meet this situation is, “with all thy getting, get understanding.” Since high officials in government positions all over the world are special targets, it was time for something to be known about this greatest of all evils.

After being spotted at Wheaton, Illinois by two great souls who were deceived by the Negative Leader, Mrs. Bowers, into watching for her re-incarnation, Frances soon understood what she had been warned about by the elderly man she found at church some time before. Clairvoyant vision and more than average extra-sensory perception are necessary to find people who have reincarnated, that is if one does not have a more direct guidance. Those who recognized her wrote to Mrs. Bowers, the physical manifestation of the negative Master, and the latter rushed to India to announce finding the reincarnate Mother. For centuries, several people in India had safeguarded possessions belonging to the reincarnate Mother in some of her former lives, and were to return them to her for the work in the Last Age. Mrs. Bowers announced her find to those who understood the importance; Blavatsky-Hilarion things of the past were entrusted to her and she returned determined to bribe or force the modern Blavatsky under her control.

When Frances first met Mary Martha Bowers, she was of the opinion the woman was interested in the Christ work and schools for the Nu-Age, but this proved not to be the case. Shortly after meeting her she heard Mrs. Bowers declare “We will have the Queen of England with us soon.” A short time later the Royal Family were reported having some trouble and it was realized the culprit was already working on the Queen. Frances tried to report the dangers to several English Embassies but was met with haughty, cold shoulders who declared they could take care of their own affairs. She even had the name of those who had been dispatched to work on the Queen but it was quite improbable that anyone would listen to the warnings she might give after so many treacherous defamations that were being broadcast against her.

Mrs. Bowers plundered every Center she wasn’t successful in taking over for her own advantage in furthering the wild efforts of The Master of deceptions, El Morya. She plundered “The White temple” at Sedalia, Colorado, first established by Mr. Doreal, after he became the victim of that devilish woman. Frances had personally heard Mary Martha Bowers declare “We will bring Doreal down in his prime,” and tried to save the situation, but her efforts were rejected each time she went to Sedalia to try to warn Mr. Doreal, whom she was told was too busy to talk with her. Mrs. Bowers had moved in after pretending to have come to his Center as a student. At first Doreal was successful in repulsing her advancements, but because of his resistance to her attempts for dominion, she purposely caused him to play his followers’ money away in Las Vegas where one of her trained servants picked up what he was caused to lose. Then she misguided him by “messages” projected on the “inner” which he felt honored to receive. He published her phony prophecies which embarrassed him when they were not fulfilled. Finally, his followers were left stranded in the mountains behind what is called “the devil’s head,” about thirty miles from Sedalia, Colorado.

Mrs. Bowers deceived people in India into trusting her with the possessions mentioned earlier which they were keeping for Frances. Mrs. Bowers had seen a chance for exploitation because she knew India was watching for the reincarnate Mother in a new body. She promised Frances the possessions if she would put herself under her control, and she planned to pick up more she knew was waiting for her return in countries where Frances had worked in other incarnations. Because Frances resisted Mrs. Bower’s advances, she became a target upon whom was worked every trick known to black magicians. Without her guardian Angels it would have been impossible to have survived the forces Mrs. Bowers imposed upon her. Claiming relationship, the devil woman’s clever trickeries were used to appropriate almost everything Frances owned. Efforts were made to bribe her to divorce her husband and when she refused someone was sent to influence him against his wife. When her back was to the wall, Mrs. Bowers proceeded to try to force her to accept the hospitality of a mansion prepared in Winnipeg, Canada, where she had planned to exploit her talents and collect inheritances, she knew were waiting for her in other countries.

The year 1952 marked the beginning of a two-year epidemic of polio in Winnipeg, Canada. Frances would later discover the causes of this epidemic and deliver the right information to health officials. In 1954, she would be instrumental in stopping the polio epidemic where there had been 2,200 cases before she got there with the information needed.

Because of her specialized Calling, better understandings and cooperative efforts, she was Chosen to reveal some “ways” formerly “past finding out” as time and necessities demanded the information. Faithful services in many lives of working against evil “principalities and powers,” earned the advantages she possessed in numerous ways. The very special Cosmic Support accompanying miracles all over the world was coveted by the negative faction who did everything possible to force her under their dominion or smear, defame and dispose of her if not possible to dominate or control for their own advantage. Recognizing the Source of the support accompanying, promoting and empowering her from higher planes, Frances always declared as did Jesus, “I of myself do nothing.”

Later that same year, an attempt was made on Frances' life and it was believed it had been successful. A man had been victimized and "caused" to crash his truck head-on into her oncoming car as she was driving down the highway. The Archangel Michael symbolized His determination to save her by moving a large stone with Christ upon it, along the ground in a cemetery in the city where she lay in a critical condition in a hospital. A number witnessed the phenomenon and told others who went to see for themselves, but none except Wise Men⁴ of this Age understood the meaning. Before she was released, every other patient in the hospital had been miraculously healed and discharged one by one.

Footnote No. 4: Wise Men - The reincarnate "Great of the Earth" are often referred to as "Wise Men, "reincarnate Space Men" or "The Very Elect."

Chapter VI.

December, 1954 – Armageddon Avoided

Second Phase of the Cosmic Birth

It was late 1954 and the world was on the brink of one of the most critical hours of history. In this Age of the development of Atomic Power, the Positive Forces planned “Atom’s Power,” or the power of the original IHVH (Yahweh or Son of God) to provide everything good the world might need for greater progress of souls. The same Plan was fractured Ages ago when appropriated by the Incarnate Lucifer of the time, during the time of Atlantis and Lemuria. The negative faction had used atomic power for advantage over others, endangering posterity to a point where Cosmic Intervention took over to prevent such a disaster. The Bible relates these events as the Great Flood in the time of Noah.

Again, in this Age the negative faction planned to use the Hydrogen bomb to destroy all but their own, and fulfill “their” prophecy of destruction of the world by fire. God’s Plan, on the other hand, is simply to burn the dross from evil souls with the “fire” of Divine Mind. “Hydra” always suggested something evil, so in the case of the use of Atomic Power, it proved that bomb to be of the negative faction.

Our guardian Space Men had been instrumental in stopping a very destructive bomb Ages before, and again in this Age a more deadly one was planned. Conniving minds of subversive activities, the most dangerous souls dedicated to the work of Lucifer for the New Age, had well laid plans to destroy all others except their protected people who were believed to be secure in their Ashrams tucked away in the mountains of many countries, some even in the United States. Food, water, and other necessary supplies were stored away by elaborate planning, and their followers had received training for survival. They were to be warned in time to take refuge and the rest of the world was to have been surprised by atomic fire which would have fulfilled the negative aspect of Bible prophecies.

Having been informed of the plan by her Teachers, Frances purchased property in Canada to receive her family and considered the safest place because it was hardly reasonable negatives would harm the city in which their Leader lived at the time. At the height of the emergency Michael called to Frances and several of her supporters who “Hear” on the “Inner” and said, “Ye on earth fail Divine causes.” He told them to sit in readiness to make a move at a moment’s notice and they were to “Listen” on the hour all day except three o’clock in the afternoon.

A great crisis was facing the earth. At the moment set for detonation God answered the prayers of the Wise Men, and The Child (“Aja The Unborn”) took what is called “Cosmic Birth” to stop the bomb. The result was that when “zero hour” came for the bomb to “blow,” nothing happened.

The two negative workers in charge of operations “were removed from this plane,” and vanished! Immediately “signs and wonders” began “appearing” in the skies, in trees of parks, and many other places in the districts where the physical forms of the reincarnate “Great of the Earth” resided. Some saw a woman appear in the skies giving birth to a child, which event is known as “the second phase of the Cosmic Birth,” or the first “attempt” at initiating the “second Coming” prophesied in Revelations.

As soon as evil ones discovered the story about “The Child” of this Age having already taken birth, they set out for control.

Chapter VII.

Easter Sunday, 1955 – The Child is “Caught Up” to God and His Throne

Third and Final Phase of the Cosmic Birth Postponed

The only exchange of souls between planets is by incarnation in bodies which can survive the conditions of the new location. There are those who can introduce Great Souls who have incarnated here from other planets for the purpose of helping humanity. They have bodies of different flesh than average persons of this dimension. They admit they were born here and the writer has seen Their birth certificates as proof. It is not in keeping with Divine Law that soul exchange between planets should be otherwise. They explain that Divine Law does not permit waste of Cosmic Powers in bringing matter of other planets through the space barriers set up by God whose wisdom we should abide. Dimensional changes which flying saucers assume are due to greater speeds, where matter of this plane interlocks with matter of another. It is not for average men to be given the information before they are made to understand more about the requirements of Divine Law controlling usage. As advanced speeds account for vibratory conditions which arrange for the interlocking of various states of matter, so do rising vibratory changes account for some of the manifestations which are witnessed when clairvoyant vision reveals effects and the Akashic records of the soul past can be SEEN. Vibratory advances in hearing also arrange for telepathic information which would not otherwise be available.

At that time, before Easter 1955, it was generally understood by Wise Men that Idaho had been chosen as the place for His coming and reincarnate Space Men were dispatched there for the preparations. Influences had been exerted in a manner which brought about the building of a tomb in Snake River canyon at Shoshone Falls where Easter sunrise services were held each year. Great efforts were being made to recruit enough help to meet the expected emergencies of His coming. The formerly aggressive Space Leader, Mrs. Bowers, offered to discontinue tormenting the Positive Space Men and help with His coming. Frances returned to Winnipeg for a brief visit and Mrs. Bowers then received a healing of a severe head cancer, blind eyes and other bad karmas too numerous to relate. She declared she had been a victim of “illusion” and had discovered her mistake. The Positive Space Men were very happy because she had been the greatest obstacle in the way of His coming. The Very Elect trusted that she finally intended to pledge her great cosmic power on the right side.

The Tomb in Snake River Canyon at Shoshone Falls

Easter 1955 was approaching and there were a number of pledged hands. Warnings kept coming that something was wrong and nobody could put a finger on the trouble.

“Your old men shall dream dreams and your young men see visions” was fulfilled in Magic Valley where many phenomenal things were reported. Frances had a dream of a cloud coming across the sun and knew this was a warning of possible failure of the plan. Another saw a vision of the Virgin Mary nailed on a cross with her mother kneeling at the foot of the cross praying. Others standing by seemed much concerned. All of this was recognized as a warning but no one could figure out what it could mean.

Phenomena for the purpose of creating understandings was frequent. Two Chosen Ones were visiting when one noticed the hand and arm of a little child on the head of the other. Two young girls, a Christian Scientist and a Mormon girl, said they tried to pick up a little child with a blue gown on a lonely country road one night and He slipped through their grasp and disappeared, going upward. A little child appeared in a meeting where helpers were being prepared. A shining book was in His hands and He was bowing. An unoccupied rocker in the room began to rock back and forth with an illumination above it as if the head of an unseen person seated in the chair. A picture of Hiawatha in the sky was taken by a young Mormon girl who questioned Frances concerning the meaning. Various beautiful promises and symbols were shown in the skies. Flying saucers were reported and many unusual things took place in that district.

After many weeks of intensive preparations Easter Sunday, April 10th, 1955 arrived. Thousands were in attendance at the sunrise services on the banks of the Snake River, at Shoshone Falls, in Twin Falls, Idaho, when suddenly the wind began to blow, a dark cloud came over the sun, the wind turned cold and it became increasingly darker. The crowds went home disappointed. The shocked Mother was told by Gabriel to “go down by the healing waters alone and wait until 12:30.” Mercifully she was put into a deep sleep to relieve the shock. Those who approached the spot also went to sleep. Only the Wise Men knew what happened. “The Very Elect” had been deceived by the Negative Space Master who “stood ready to swallow up “The Child.” “The Child was caught up to God and His throne,” for protection until a better understanding could be worked out, fulfilling yet another Prophecy. It became increasingly darker and colder at that spot until 12:30 that day when the cloud lifted. The “third and final” phase of the Cosmic Birth would now have to be postponed until more protection could be arranged for His safety. From this moment on, since being “caught up” from this dimension, and until Frances would leave this plane in 1994, He became “one with The Mother” with whom He would then be “seen” by those who could be trusted to “See.”

The Snake River at Shoshone Falls

By the "Healing Waters"

The Negative Leader stormed in anger because the trickery did not accomplish the plan for her possession of The Child. Mrs. Bowers was known to have been performing “fire down from heaven” black magic stunts to prove she was the reincarnation of Virgin Mary and many sincere souls had been victims of her deceptions. With her pride crushed she gave vent to her great fury by releasing full force of her cosmic powers against Positive Space Men.

Immediately thereafter Christ laid out an itinerary for a world tour for Frances which guided her to find many ancient records the world will someday learn about, most of them proving that Christ and His Disciples returned in the flesh many times when world progress was needed. It was then also realized how imperative it was to find more of the one hundred and forty-four thousand Chosen Ones the Bible promised would be reincarnated in the Last Age to help with the Work. Frances asked her Teacher if what happened meant that The Child could not be given to earth at that time and He replied, “The bowels of the earth groan, the sature atmosphere of hate is hardly the condition for the reception of the Savior.” She was told that the trip would take one and one-half years, giving specifically where she was to be at what times.

HE promised He would guide her, cause others to meet her in various places she was sent and would always stand by to explain what she found. Much of the mission, aside from finding the “called” and helping them understand enough to be “chosen,” would be to locate records which revealed what the Bible calls “Truth to make free.” At first the wealth of materials, pictures, sculpturing and other forms of records would seem quite confusing. This was mostly because there were two distinct teachings, the records of which could be found all over the world. Each had converts who were certain there could be no other “Truth” than that to which they were converted. After much research and study of both types, Frances would be in a position to weigh one type of teachings against the other, and both with the scales of Cosmic Principles. This would make it possible to determine which was really “Truth to Make Free.”

At times she would almost despair of ever getting the picture clear. It seemed the negative faction always hunted for the Positive records to either distort or destroy them. Distortions were always so cleverly concealed that it would be very difficult to determine the Positive from the negative. She would soon learn that the most wordy and flowery of language expressed the more negative teachings. Without being exposed to both types for comparison, and helped by Christ to understand, she would never have been able to figure it out alone. In the darkest moments of confusion, fearing she would not be able to fulfill her mission of getting a clear picture to relay to others, Christ assured her, “It will all come clear.” Her answer was, “I don’t see how it can, the records are so contradictory in many cases.” Again, she was told to “weigh each against Principle.” There would be so much to take into consideration because the souls of the “first triad⁵” were originally positioned differently before “The fall of Lucifer.” Then there would be the incarnations to figure out and determine which were of the Positive and which the negative faction. Since “The Great Deceiver” frequently was able to deceive “even the Very Elect” into working with him, the problem would be even more difficult, especially when considering “their fruits.” She would eventually discover that the pattern was the same all through the Ages. Without the specialized help The King of Kings would give her, she would never have been able to get the clear picture.

Footnote No. 5: First Triad - One finds the same triad mentioned several times in the Kabbala Unveiled by MacGregor Mathers. Once they were Macroprosopus, Microprosopus and Baima, “the mother in whom they stumbled” or Eve known in later incarnations as Evvl and Satet which account for the Christian Evil and Satan. For more information, readers are referred to “The Triad” web page on the “A Little Child to Lead Them” website (www.alittlechildtoleadthem.com).

Chapter VIII.

Summer of 1955 – World Tour

Finding the Chosen Ones and Discovering “Truth” Records

In sending Frances out, Christ said in His last message before her departure: “Bring peace, endeavor peace, spread peace that the world may by peace abide and in peace restore the First Love.” HE spoke of Him as “The First Love,” because it was Her first Child, as well as first in her love. He added “Blossoms art dear to Us. Find them around the world that they may be united through love in the Supreme expectancy of Christ. Tell them we need hands and feet of the flesh and ears attuned to listening.” She was given the names of the countries and cities where Chosen Ones could be found. Exact dates for her to arrive and leave each location were given. Other information was dictated to guide her to attend religious celebrations and visit many places where she had worked in past incarnations. She was directed to many art galleries and museums and other places where there were important records which her Teachers wished her to see.

Her Teachers made her understand that she had pledged to reincarnate for this work and she had been chosen to “Open the Ways” for His coming. They said she could be protected if she would leave the States on a certain date and move quickly whenever They gave her warnings. It was the tourist season and this complicated reservations on such short notice to get all the way to India. Her guides promised to arrange a cancellation which would help her get as far as Rome. Christ had directed her to go to Rome because Pope Pius XII was ill. The Holy Father had been the victim of what is known to the occult world as a “heart chakra⁶” strike from the negative faction who were determined to get him out of offices because he knew too much to be forced under their aims for control.

Pope Pius was not aware that Frances had arrived in Rome, and that she was trying to obtain an audience with him. Christ “appeared” to him and he recovered. The Holy Father didn’t realize the significance until later, when he wrote a letter to Frances telling his positions in some matters of esoteric understandings, and giving her permission to publish some of what he said; he asked her not to speak of the part the world was not ready to understand. He spoke of the relief it would be to leave the body and return in another to work for Christ. “I am a soldier of the cross” he declared. He said he was a victim of “black forces” trying to get him out of position as Pope. He told Frances that “It is very difficult for one in my position who knows what is right, not to be able to do what he knows should be done.” He wrote to her again a few years later, just before he passed this plane of consciousness, “I am ready to leave this body because I see nothing else to do under the circumstances” which she was well aware meant blockades by “black forces” within. He asked Frances to go to a certain young woman in California whom he declared had been his father in an incarnation long ago. “Ask her to have another child which I would like to be.” Faithful to her promise, she visited the lady then in southern California. When given the message from Pope Pius the young woman said, “I have never thought of Pius that way, but if John asked the same thing, I love him so much I would not have to think about it before promising.” Later the same young woman told Frances that as soon as Pope Pius passed, He came to her in the Astral and asked her to have a child he hoped to be. She then said, “God’s will be done. Let the little Popes have their wish.”

Getting back to the world tour, no sooner had Frances landed in Rome, she was instructed to go to the reservations desk and leave her name for another cancellation They planned in order for her to arrive in India “three days previous to July twenty-eight.”

Footnote No. 6: Chakra - As we have explained in Chapter IV, one of the seven Chakra Centers is the heart, and mental malpractitioners trained by the negative faction, through the use of Black Magic, can cause their victims to suffer a heart attack. The method is undetectable by conventional medicine but effective, nonetheless, and very lethal.

At the desk they told her there was no hope for reservations because cancellations were very rare on that particular flight during the tourist season. In keeping with her Teacher's promise the airlines called her the next morning to tell her there had been a cancellation which would get her to India exactly at the appointed time.

The flight was arranged through Istanbul, Turkey, where she was to give informative messages concerning a riot which was in the making. Because she had no diplomatic relations, she found it impossible to put the messages in the right hands in time to prevent disaster. Her Guides had made arrangements for a college instructor and lecturer from India to meet her in Istanbul. They were both sent to an international educational meeting and both instructed to leave before the meeting was over. They met in the hall and the man said his Teacher had "shown" him a picture of her and told him that he would meet her in Istanbul. There was work in Turkey which the Space Men wanted done for the protection of innocent victims of aggression there.

Frances arrived in India with the Space Leader known as "M" on her trail and a message was given concerning a plan to put her in "the house of silence." That is where they put their dead in India for the buzzards to pick the flesh from the bones. At a Theosophical Society section, she found more of the Chosen Ones grouped together celebrating Blavatsky's birthday, a body she had worn not so long ago. She did not know why her Guides sent her to that place until she saw the picture decked with flowers and heard the speech honoring her past. She found a Baptist girl from Belgium who said when she was "called," she heard "go to India and work with the lepers," and she was very obedient without understanding anything more than it must be what is termed a "Call." Instead of the planned three months in India, and seeing Nehru with important information, Frances was forced to leave in six days. She looped back to Turkey to help as the riot which she sensed had materialized while she was gone.

Everywhere she went she found more of His loved ones and taught them to "Hear" the "still small voice" of the Angels who gave them instructions to help His coming. Each time ears were opened deceptive messages would creep in to cause the victims to make a wrong move at the right time to cause trouble. When this occurred, the Angels were forced to close their ears to "Hearing" from any source. Oppressors were sent to trouble her from every angle and she was tormented by the opposing Space Master who directed negatively-trained laborers by telepathic messages and the crosses were many.

From Istanbul Frances was dispatched to Teheran, Iran, to deliver some messages to the Shah which he could have used to ease the difficult situation in the Middle East at the time. Arriving at the airport a young man searched her out, saying he had been sent to meet an American woman and take her to safety. She asked him who told him about her and he smiled and pointed upward. While riding into the city he told her about a Catholic girl. "There is something very unusual in her experiences and I would like for you to figure it out for me," he said. Upon meeting the girl Frances asked if she "heard" from "above." Her answer was affirmative. She was one of the few she had met who already knew the answer.

Before Frances had left Canada, Michael had given her the name of a woman in Baghdad He said was "the best of best," which she interpreted as being of very high "calling." HE said she had a friend He wanted her to meet but He did not give the friend's name. With His guidance she located her easily. Frances asked her if she "heard" directions for the work she was doing and she admitted she was "guided." She did not understand the source nor the reasons and Frances was sent to explain. She invited her to church to meet a friend whom she declared to be "a mystic like yourself." Her friend was a Catholic Sister whose functions were somewhat like her own in healing and she understood her Guides were the Christ and His Mother worked together in other incarnations In His Name and He was bringing them together again.

From Baghdad she was sent to Cairo, in Egypt, to deal with the Gaza troubles, and she found her work very difficult with reincarnate evil ones on her heels. Hates and fears were running high so she went to Alexandria to write an expose of negative activities in the East.

She was standing by the door of a Hotel in Alexandria talking with a college professor when a young man came rushing out the door. Frances recognized him as having been a doctor in a past incarnation. She asked the professor to do something to help her meet him because she saw at once that he was another of the Chosen Ones. He was amazed at what she had to say and exclaimed, "Lady, you are changing my whole life. In my spare time I have been serving as a doctor in the community in which I live. I have never had any training but everything seems quite natural for me." He explained that he was afraid that he might make a mistake and give the wrong shots in emergencies. He said he always prayed first and had never made a mistake. He did not know of Angel Guides or reincarnation but his experiences made his acceptance immediate. This was an older soul functioning somewhat from memory.

After her meeting with the young man, she returned to her room and began to write an exposition of the subversive activities of the Negative Leader. She intended to mail this to cults deceived into generating powers for him to use. Knowing how power is gathered up from fears and hates of men, and how the oppressors use it to slap their victims, she prayed for several days for the protection of Egypt. Vibrations from the minds of people were getting to a pitch where they could cause an earthquake.

Frances had discovered records showing terrible injustices that had been forced on a king, Ages ago, who was the physical puppet of Michael who had been poisoned by the Lucifer counterpart. The devil's puppet then wore a beard with the king's robes, successfully deceiving subjects into following another course of actions in keeping with the negative plan for that Age. Even though she had been told not to try to explain her findings until later, when it would be safe to do so, Frances was so moved as to write the story which she planned to send to Adyar, India, Theosophical Headquarters because she believed they would understand it. This was two months before Lucifer's Cosmic Powers would be revoked. Just as she was finishing the story a young guide came to take her on a planned excursion. He said that "some voice told me to take you to buy a certain type of incense." She said that she was amazed that the guide was given the "message" and wondered if she was slipping from the grace of receiving her own "messages." So meekly she went with the guide and purchased the incense. Upon lighting it she realized the trick of the negative faction who "used" the young man to cause her to make a false move so the Lucifer soul on higher planes would be evoked to learn of what she was trying to do. Remembering the Biblical passage declaring "I hate your new moons (crescents) and incense," she asked the ever present "King of Kings" if she should throw it all in the toilet. "Do just that" He answered. But the incense had already attracted the attention of "the negatively existent one" as ancient scriptures call Lucifer.

Immediately the chair upon which she was sitting began to be pounded violently underneath, followed by a great swaying of the tall building, on the top floor of which was the apartment she occupied while writing the exposures. People started pouring out of their rooms screaming and trying to go down in the elevators. She quickly opened her door and told them, "this is an earthquake, don't take the elevators." Then she quickly tore up the document she had just signed which she planned to mail to Adyar. The earthquake stopped immediately with little damage except for two schools which were shattered. There was no damage to the building in which she resided because she was being protected. Then she prayed God to remove the power from the Master "Morya" who had tried to dispose of her before she could expose his activities. He had trained manipulators of mental powers all over the world, and had watched her mentally to see what she was doing.

Frances returned to Cairo and tried again to help with the Gaza Strip troubles but provocations were too demanding on the attention of those whom she wished to see. She was unable to see President Nasser to give messages which could have helped a great deal.

One of Frances' most interesting experiences while in Cairo was when she was "told" to go to the Cairo Museum. Realizing that she was always accompanied by a "Guide" from "Above," she turned down many guides who approached her. Then much to her surprise her "Teacher" called her attention to a Guide who was standing in meditation just outside the building. She was “told” to ask this man to take her through the Museum. As soon as the tour began, her voice was “used” to explain the tour to the Guide instead of his explaining to her. He became very perturbed and finally went to a bench and sat down. Wiping his brow he explained in dismay, “You know more about this Museum than I do! You amaze me with the information you have given me which I did not know before, even though I spent my life in studying for my job.” He then explained to her why he was so disturbed about explanations she was giving him. He said that he had given Cecil B. DeMille the information for “The Ten Commandments” Picture. He explained that Frances had brought him to understand he had given information which was from deceptive records prepared by the negative faction. He then told her of a woman who had toured him through the Museum several years before, much in the same manner as she was doing. The other woman had given him the twisted teachings from which Wise Men of the Catholic Church call, “the second book.” The Guide said the name of the deceptive woman was “Gwendolyn Green.”

The Museum Guide asked Frances to “go to Cecil B. DeMille and tell him of the mistake and that the information given him was from the wrong faction.” Later, when she returned to the States, she tried to deliver the information to DeMille, but those who were in charge of the promotion of that picture made it quite impossible. Somehow the Guide got the information to DeMille anyway, and was told that if they could locate anyone with the right information the Picture would be changed. The negative faction, enjoying the promotion of their own twists, smeared and defamed Frances to make sure DeMille never got the right information. The Ten Commandments Picture is now used to make it seem that Moses was greater than Jesus because of the great miracles and phenomena which Wise Men of many Ages recognized came from satanic powers.

Another prominent physician in Cairo heard of her and came to ask for a healing for his broken body and the transference of healing powers to himself. Frances found conditions present in his mind which would have necessitated her breaking principles of Divine Healing if she granted his desire. Mental attitudes and karmas play a large role in healings and have much to do with how a case should be handled. There is a great field for physicians and meta-physicians yet to explore. There are four planes of healing and it takes much wisdom and understanding to determine the level for each patient. Healers would do well to have this information.

A few days before leaving Egypt, a reporter came to interview her who said that he did not believe a word of what she told him. He said if she wanted to prove herself, she could heal his small child who was ill. Frances asked him to go home and pray earnestly to be told if she was a hoax or not, and he would be given the answer. She left the rest to her Guardian Angels. The next morning, he called to say that the child was well and many phenomenal things had taken place to make him understand.

Chapter IX.

Autumn of 1955 – Persecutions Continue

Frances then went to her home in Idaho and found her family very embarrassed by the insane-sounding letters. The Evil One had sent laborers to her home town and more recruits were found there who were bribed to smear her. One young woman was promised enough power to level the city. She possessed extrasensory perception and was highly emotional. Because of poor morals it was easy for the Negative One to channel black magic through her and she enjoyed the phenomena. She helped with the smears which made it impossible for Frances to remain at home. She was not wanted anywhere except by officers of the law who had been advised to pick her up for mental treatments. Because of the accusations against her, her husband was afraid the aggressors would try to sue him for money he was inheriting. He asked her to protect the family by giving him a divorce until she could get them off her trail. In full faith that she was protecting her family she signed the divorce.

There were more troubles in Canada where the physical manifestation of the Master “M” resided at the time, at 98 Kingsway Street, in the City of Winnipeg, Manitoba. Frances’ own piece of property was being molested and the one to whom she had entrusted power of attorney had been turned against her. The lady had been “hearing” deceptive “inner” messages and the “voice” had convinced her it was “the Lord.” She had played money Frances had borrowed for the trip into the hands of the Negative One without knowing it and nothing Frances could say or do would convince her that she was hearing from the wrong source. Canada had been struck hard by negative activities and many needed understanding in order to get out of the snares. Frances started helping any who would listen. Business people had lost thousands of dollars, organizations were being devastated, churches invaded, homes, hearts and pocketbooks were being broken and the Positive Space Men were calling for help from God.

One business man came to her stating that he was making $11,000 a month and had a great desire to use his money for God’s work. He said that he had been jumping out of the frying pan of one organization into the fire of another for so long that he could not take any more. He said he heard that she knew the truth and asked “just what is the Truth?” Frances replied “The Truth is not for sale, it isn’t the Truth if it is, and that IS the Truth. When you are ready for the Truth He will give it to you.” Just at that moment Christ started speaking to him. He closed his eyes and listened, saying ‘I didn’t know there was anything like this.’ She asked him to open his eyes and he saw The Master. Presently he received a “message” from an unknown source telling him to leave her house at once. Earlier in the evening he had been “caused” to have a car wreck because the Negatives were trying to prevent him from coming to her. They had been working on him for his money and property and were afraid Frances would spoil their plans. It was their Leader who had sent him the telepathic message. He left declaring that he was on a deal to help with chain hospitals. Frances tried to tell him of the danger because all organizations were being plundered. He refused to listen and insisted the people he was working with at the time were all right. Mental forces were being played upon him and he began acting like he was insane. He was soon bankrupt, hypnotized and in a position where nobody would have listened if he had dared try tell what had happened to him. It was known to be a fact that few people lived who might talk after they had become victims. All victims were forced to take an oath of “silence in fear of death.” In all nations negatively-trained laborers were being dispatched to work in investment companies, banks, schools and other places people who have money might be located.

An elderly oil and uranium man living in Winnipeg had suffered a stroke which resulted in blindness. He sent for Frances to come to his office. She preferred attending the Sunday school class he taught. When she asked him what he would do with his eyesight if it was restored, he told of his plans to build a new Baptist church and of charitable work for a missionary he was interested in helping. “If God’s work is your desire, you have a right to a healing,” she told him. The next week she returned to hear him tell his class that he could read the finest print at the bottom of the Sunday school lesson and that his doctor was amazed at his recovery. As usual the Deceiver was on her trail. The oil man was contacted and told that his healing had come through Mrs. Bowers who had used Frances to bring about the healing, and they set about to work on him for his money. He was shocked when he heard the smears they told about her and he died very suddenly.

There were more “wars in heaven,” victims of atrocities everywhere. Families had been separated and children taken away to so-called religious schools to be trained for negative activities in the future. Money was being forced out of people in a clever manner that no law could touch. Frances had been impressed with the fact that the Negative Space Leader was very powerful and that silence was necessary for the protection of her family, therefore she did not try to talk except to her husband and he was influenced so he refused to listen. Wise Men of that day were crying to God for relief because there was no hope for help from any other source. These things were so concealed that law officials knew nothing about them and there were no laws to cover the crimes if they did. The torment and crucifixion being intensified, karmas of her own making heaped upon the head of the Lucifer puppet, resulting once again in karmic effects in the form of cancer, blind eyes, diabetes and many other complications which made it impossible for the evil One’s fleshy counterpart to remain on this plane. This time Frances didn’t respond to Mrs. Bowers demanding that she come over to heal her, as she had done earlier that year, before the treachery that had caused The Child to be “caught up” for His protection.

Chapter X.

October, 1955 – Lucifer’s Cosmic Power is Revoked for a Thousand Years

“Signs and wonders” have appeared in the skies while prophecies were in the process of fulfillment and have not been noticed by average men who do not know what to look for or when something special is going on.

Physical counterparts of great Archangels, who function on all planes simultaneously, carried the heavy crosses in this dimension, while Their co-existing oversouls “above” suffered the “wars in heaven.”

By October 1955 “Stars of Heaven cast to earth in that Day” by reincarnation to function as puppets for the Archangels “above,” brought about conditions leading to exposure of the evil personalities functioning the cause of the negative faction. While reincarnate “negative red stars” fought on this plane against the “Positive White Stars” guided by the higher plane manifestations Michael (Christ) and Gabriel (Mary), “wars in heaven” working for their protection were reverberating on earth through the efforts of physical plane channels working toward the same end. In the thick of the battle when crosses became too heavy a “thus far and no further” came from God and the leader of the antichrist work had his power revoked for a thousand years. “For the sake of the Elect those days will be shortened” was fulfilled at the time. What follows describes the events that took place on the physical plane at this critical juncture.

More than twenty business men in Winnipeg had lost everything and had been defamed, homes broken, victims eliminated one way or another; Frances had gone up there to take charge of the situation.

After Master Morya had discovered “The Child” and caused Him to be “caught up,” he began another phase of deceptions. He tried frantically to incarnate another form among highest initiates in a mad effort to steal the crown the Christ Child was to bear. Bids for another body ran into grave situations for older souls where even rape was tried. After the Gwendolyn Green body became useless because of broken back, blind eyes, diabetes, cancer and many other karmas, The Great Deceiver, who had been responsible for leading great devastations and laying heavy crosses on martyrs of all Ages, appropriated the body of a missionary who had been “called” for a very important part of Christ’s work. While possessing the form mentioned, God rang down the curtain of a thousand years’ time in perdition for that most deceitful of all souls, and Lucifer’s Cosmic Power was revoked for the next thousand years. The date was October 1955, and the “Millennium” prophesied in Revelations was now underway!!!

A great Angel (Michael) appeared and asked for “time to mark more in the forehead.” The location was Winnipeg, Canada where many took pictures of the “apparition” without knowing what was taking place on earth to bring about the fulfillment of that prophecy. It has been reported by photographers whom Frances contacted, that the many pictures of Christ which were taken at that time were picked up by the Catholics who have built a catholic fence around the incident without understanding what actually happened to bring forth such a great “apparition.” Now that Lucifer’s Cosmic Power was revoked for a thousand years and the Millennium had begun, “The King of Kings” announced to Frances, “Your tongue has been loosed by God. Since you have climbed out of the pit, go and help others.” It had been considered too dangerous to openly tell “Truth to Make Free” before that time.

What transpired in Winnipeg, Canada during her assignment there in 1955, proved that “last Age” meant the last age for Lucifer to dominate the world as he had long enjoyed. After that he failed to respond to the supplications of those who had been deceived into following his precepts. Then the idea “god is dead” was first heard. With the fall of Lucifer, that “god is dead” as far as being able to respond with the use of his Cosmic Powers to destroy the world by fire as he prophesied in one of his past incarnations, and fully intended to carry out in this “Last Age.”

Frances was then free to “unveil the original Isis,” who in a former life, “cut Osiris” (Son of God) “to pieces,” by deceiving His Disciples into going many directions, instead of uniting for overpowering evil in that Age. The same idea, where deceptions confused and scattered the reincarnate Disciples, was repeated again in this Age. “The second Isis” or Virgin Mary who became “world mother” when Lucifer (Eve) “fell” long ago, was now freed to continue seeking the “pieces of Osiris” whose unity would make the return of “The Child” possible.

This revocation of the Lucifer’s Cosmic Power had the effect of rendering the Negative One helpless to move into another form he had incarnated for a later abode. It also made it impossible for his physical manifestation, Mrs. Bowers, to continue the Black Magic she was using to literally “pull fire down from heaven” and convince most of the occult world she was God.

When God revoked the Cosmic Power for a thousand years of the soul known on higher planes as Lucifer, this showed on the physical plane by Mrs. Bowers being unable to continue her “fire down from heaven” stunts. After the cosmic power was removed the rackets in Canada began to be uncovered and many who had lost large sums were trying to recover their losses. To keep her past reputation, she had her house wired with microphones: the Canadian Mounted Police discovered this when they were investigating her. The Negative Leader and best trained workers fled from Canada, hoping to take refuge in Adyar, India where it was reported the Annie Besant home was being remodeled at a cost of $10,000 to receive them. Frances tried to warn Theosophists but she had been so smeared that there was little hope anybody would listen.

When their real estate rackets and other evil doings were being investigated in Canada, and fear from exposures became too great, the Bowers fled to Chicago. From there, deceived people of the “I AM” group at Mt. Shasta, California, paid the couple’s way to Switzerland until things cooled off in the States and Canada. Later on, they returned to the States but were unable to maintain physical forms much longer. At an earlier time, some “I AM” people whom Frances had convinced should protect their Organization from that “Great Deceiver,” had offered to finance her trip to visit them in California, but “Mamma Ballard,” the leader of the “I AM” group, refused to receive her, no doubt under the advice of Mrs. Bowers, her superior. Frances had always hoped and prayed that the “I AM” would recognize the facts of deceptions which caused the demise of “Papa Ballard” who would have been instrumental in rejecting Mrs. Bowers if he had lived to protect that great Organization, to no avail.

Without the necessary power to maintain a high vibratory body in this dimension Mrs. Bowers passed away early in 1956. The right to work on other planes had been taken and the deceased was limited to the lower astral plane.

The following is a brief description of events that took place in the negative camp immediately after the passing of Mrs. Bowers, when she left her husband functioning the Morya cause. Because of the many harassing experiences in escaping those who were angered when they discovered the deceptions, and having generated the power to force many to leave this plane, her husband was in very bad physical condition from karmas made. Frances informed him of the status of the “M” whom he served because it is known that no occultist would dare to do wrong if he knew it was wrong. The man was given the full story and offered a physical healing for his karma ridden body in return for his pledge to make things right, which he must have known his wife had set in suspense. Any mortal can realize the shock Mr. Bowers might have suffered when he discovered that he had spent his life working for the Devil, especially when he was made to understand that the woman who had been his wife was the reincarnation of Cleopatra and many of the most dangerous characters who ever lived. Perhaps the “pit” was too deep for him and he could see no way out. He no doubt was forced to commit many atrocities by his wife whose tremendous power was very hard to combat even by the greatest Men from Outer Space (Archangels). That is speaking for the period before God removed the Morya Cosmic

Power. He made no response to the offers for healing and he left this plane the first part of March 1958. He was training a high initiate at Wheaton, Illinois, to function as the “M” representative when he departed this plane.

After Mrs. Bowers left the earth plane, an intensified play of devilment came from the astral plane. There were “wars in heaven” and a bad situation developed below, where mediums were being deceived worse than before by “inner” deceptive messages. The evil one tormented other Space Men to arrange for an incarnation on earth for which he promised that he would discontinue the negative work. A truce was arranged and because something had to be done to get him off the astral plane where he was using the advantage to cause much trouble, someone offered to martyr the cause by promising to produce a much-needed body for the Negatively Existent One. In return for the body the truce called for him to discontinue negations. No sooner had the pregnancy been arranged than the truce was broken by his helpers who began to work to prevent the coming of the Christ Child until the new body for their Leader was ready for his possession. Their Negative One took physical birth December 1957 after a long siege of trying to force a birth every time the Space Men tried to bring “A Little Child to Lead Them.” They were instructed to claim that he was John the Baptist who is seen in many pictures with the Christ Child. Positive Space Masters who have charge over world affairs, prevented the deception by changing Their plans for His coming. The “wrong” child is now a physical plane “dud” without any Cosmic Powers of his own. After their Leader was born on this plane, failing to come at the time The Child was delivered, they set out from another angle to win. As soon as Frances was led to discover the planned deception and revealed the secret, they began their fabrications from other angles, then trying to prove their Leader had not passed this plane.

No one had ever been victim of more incredulous defamations than Frances because it has been prophesied that she would unveil these deceptions. She knew she could prove that imposters were representing the Bowers. With death certificates and notices printed in the papers, and all the other evidence of departure, it is hardly possible that any future deceptions could win much credence. After she exposed the facts, new fabrications began that the culprits forged the documents and evidences to cause Frances to make mistakes so they could prove that she did not tell the truth. While it is a fact that figuring out the truth had been very hard with the deliberate misleadings and “inner” deceptive “messages,” there is little doubt that the information was exact. Frances invited anyone who could personally appear and prove they were the departed to do so. She even had the name of the one who served as the imposter for the departed.

Troubles increased among mediums who found it almost impossible to determine which messages were Positive and which Negative. More “wars in heaven” and more turmoil below were caused every time the Space Men tried to bring The Child. Deceptions were great and blockades were put in the way of His coming. Frances tried everywhere she went to organize recruits to meet the emergencies and arrange the unity necessary to make the release of The Child possible. “Inner” deceptive messages were still disrupting and causing confusions.

After Frances was freed from silence necessary until Lucifer’s power was revoked, she began the search for the deceived “red stars” to save them from making further karmas against The Great Plan. Each was given a chance to use their own Cosmic Power on the right side. Those who refused to listen and continued their onslaughts by using Cosmic Power for advantage over others soon discovered their powers were revoked. She worked frantically to win as many as possible to the right understandings. Whenever it became impossible, she turned them over to the Hierarchy Above to make the decisions for their future.

One by one, each of them going too far overboard in creating disturbances experienced the revocation of their own powers. When that happened, they were unable to maintain a physical manifestation in the third dimension. Like their leader, they suffered many karmas because of the limitations they have purposely posed against God’s Great Plan for the return of His Son long ago. Finally, they passed from this plane to the rewards of perdition with the Lucifer soul who has been “returned to his source,” which is said to be the moon which he burned out before taking over Mars to receive souls graduating from the necessity of more earthly lives. Souls graduating under Lucifer were not permitted to inhabit stars of the Heavens where good souls go when no longer being required to return to this physical plane. Each time one of the “red stars” lost his Cosmic Power, there was less power for the negative faction and more for the Positive. Frances carried out this work over the next several years after the initial revocation of Lucifer’s power, with the greatest battles taking place during the nine months immediately after the revocation.

The battle against the “red stars” continued into the late sixties. An example of this was related to a group of “I Doers” during a prayer meeting in the early seventies. Here, in her own words, is what transpired during one of her missions in the late sixties which took her to Winnipeg, Canada:

“Those with the greatest cosmic power in Winnipeg lost the power by the things that they did to me while I was up there, just like Mrs. Bowers did, so pretty much cleaned up for Winnipeg. There isn’t a great deal of the negative power left, but one religious group was the worst, and I got away from them. But soon after that, I got struck again and I was laid up on my back for seven and a half weeks. I asked ‘What gives?’ because after I got away from that first religious group, I was still plagued. There was a man who was working with another religious group, he was another one. They found out where I was when I moved from the St. Regis Hotel out to a motel on Pembina Highway. When I kept having these strikes, and couldn’t seem to get well, I asked what it was, and ‘The Boys Upstairs’ showed me a vision where this man who was working with that second religious group came and plastered a sign on the wall like this, a big sign and it said ‘Man at work’. And then he stepped over and put his head right in the middle of the sign and pointed at his head this way - black magician. And then They showed me two lines, long lines of ‘Negs’, big wealthy ‘Negs’, you know, and they were machinating at my motel. So, when I had this vision, I moved to another motel on Pembina Highway and found that was it, I lost him. It got all right. After seven and half weeks flat on my back, I had to have that vision to get me out of their clutches. But, in doing that, they would lose their cosmic power. And that’s what I stuck my neck out for. It’s what I was told when I groaned under it, ‘You asked for this’ to reel out the line and let them do anything to me so they stack enough karma that the Cosmos would revoke their cosmic power. So down goes those with the cosmic power. And constantly this is being done, it isn’t just one little job like that, it’s all the time.”

Chapter XI.

Working for World Peace

Going back to the summer of 1956, Frances, after many battles, pulled her small house trailer to her birthplace near Idaho City and parked under the pine trees to pray for relief. The Suez troubles were getting started. Her Teachers advised her of the urgency of going to Egypt for Them and arranged for her to borrow more money to make the trip.

Arriving in Cairo she went immediately to the Intelligence department and told them there were subversives in Egypt who were working to bring about a world war. They said they would have caught them if there were. The influence was so strong she was unable to see President Nasser personally as she was instructed. A powerful black magician had been put on her trail. It was with much difficulty she worked for two and one-half months before the Suez “blow” to give messages that could have saved the situation. It was two weeks before that Michael told her He thought it was too late but she should keep trying anyway. “You must burn the candle at both ends and split the ends or the poor and the weak will shine in the heavens,” He told her.

With the Negative Space Leader’s cosmic power removed and many of the laborers being caught, it was quite impossible for the trouble to amount to a world war. Her Teacher told her it would not last a month. Frances increased her efforts and the shooting began when she was still frantically trying to see President Nasser of Egypt. She had known for two months of the planned “sneak” attack but had never dreamed that it could materialize before she could give the message to Nasser. She then took direct action and was instrumental in stopping the Suez War by finding people who were instigating that tribulation and making them understand their wrong usage of extrasensory perception responsible for those confusions. While meeting with them, Michael spoke from Above, declaring, “I sent a messenger and you will do well to listen.” The instigators of that conflict listened, making it possible then for the United Nations to find a solution for that problem, “within a month” as Michael had asked Frances to tell Egypt, a month before the war ended.

As soon as she made right understandings, she checked her passport out of the country and headed for Naples, Italy, on an evacuee boat. “Your war cannot last a month.” she tried to tell them at the passport office as she checked out, but they would not believe her. President Eisenhower had requested Americans without official business to leave Egypt. She left reluctantly because she knew she could help more than anyone if they would listen to the messages the Angels were giving to her. God loves Egypt very much because they are a peace-loving and praying nation. If Government Officials everywhere knew enough about the cause of wars, they would head them off. The papers stated that thirty-two subversives had been rounded up and when she left, she had the names of the three worst in the East but couldn’t get in to the right people to give the information. At the same time the best helpers of the negative one were working in Egypt trying to prove the claims of negatives for things of the past which Egypt is holding for the return of some of their Leaders. The one making the claims was in many lives a great devastator who raised flags with his symbols on them in countries he plundered. Even on the evacuee boat Frances tried to give information concerning some who were coming to America because they were fortunate enough to have American passports. She was told that there was nothing that could be done about it. Her problem was always getting people to listen.

A month later while she would be on another mission to try to save Syria from a bad situation, the war in Egypt would end.

When she arrived in Naples having left Egypt with the other evacuees, her Guides directed her to slip away from the group and rush around Teheran, Iran, where she arrived in time for the Peace Conference. She had vital information for the protection of the Middle East which she was told she must deliver personally to the Shah. Frances found the negative influence stronger than the year before. After trying in vain for one month she headed to Turkey to try for the third time to give other information which was needed there. In Turkey she failed again, and from there she went to Rome for the sixth time to try again for an audience with the Pope. She had again been directed by Christ to try to contact Pope Pius, hoping to make him understand her mission.

Failing again to be given hope of a private audience, she went to her hotel to pray over the matter. Shortly a messenger delivered an invitation to a private audience. Christ appeared with her to the Holy Father. Something Christ revealed to the Pope at the time must have made him understand more about the work of The Master who is directing the Chosen to do many things the world would consider impossible. Only one close to God and sincere for desire for Truth could accept what must have been given to the Pope at the time. While conducting research on the situation in the Vatican, Frances was told by some Sisters in Rome that since the “Black Pope's” reign during the XVIth Century, there have been concealed “black forces” within. “They are so well established in controlling positions that none of us know what to do about it,” one in authority explained.

Before leaving, Frances was honored in the Vatican along with other “Soldiers of the Cross” as Pius called them. Newspapers told of the appearance of Christ to Pius but no mention of the part she played was given.

From Rome, Frances headed back to the States to try to see the President. Crossing the ocean in December is frequently quite rough. It was night and they were all asleep. The winds were so strong it became necessary to go by way of Greenland to refuel. Her Teacher awakened her gently saying that they would land on an island within an hour and she was to tell the crew that something was wrong with a left motor of a Pan American plane. The crew was amazed that she knew of their forced detour and admitted that they would be landing within an hour as she had been told.

Because Frances was not sure if it was their plane or another, they inspected other planes also. Something was found wrong with the left motor of a B.O.A.C. airplane and they tried to convince her this was it. She insisted it was a Pan American. She stayed at the airport hotel to pray for all other planes out that wild night. During the night a Pan American plane arrived and her Guides told her this was the plane. She was to tell the passengers if the crew decided to go on. She was not allowed to see the passengers and the plane was leaving. She prayed that something would happen before they got into the air. The plane was banking when the oil-line broke and it was forced to return. Investigations proved that this plane had a left motor failing. Another plane was flown in to bring them to New York.

Chapter XII.

1957 – Frantically Trying to Secure “A Safe Place to Lay HIS Head”

Attempts at Recruiting Enough Called and Chosen End in Failure

A second trip to Washington D.C., and she failed again to get an audience with the President. She made one more attempt to go home but the influence made it impossible to stay. She made two trips to the West Coast trying to help the cults and creeds trapped in deceptions. Finally, she returned to Boulder, Colorado, to try again for recruits. There are “marked” places of special Cosmic interest and Boulder is one of them where God would give The Child if there is enough organization to make that possible. Again, all organization failed because those who could “hear” were receiving ill-advised messages which caused misunderstandings among them.

While searching for Chosen Ones in Colorado she was directed to a church convention in Denver where it was customary to give readings from Spirits of departed relatives hovering close on the astral plane. The Master told her to tell them He wanted to speak. They declared they did not believe in such things and their program was full anyway. “No time to listen to the Master,” she said and quietly took a seat to see what her Guides would do about it. In a few minutes a clairvoyant saw The Child beside her and asked if she had a child in the spirit world. Sitting at the banquet supper a visiting minister asked her about the man he saw with the beard standing behind her. She replied, “He is the One who sent me here tonight.” He was of the opinion this must be a dead relative materializing. His wife corrected him by saying, “He is Christ.” During the main lecture Christ “appeared” first on one side of the speaker and then on the other as if waiting to speak. Finally, a clairvoyant who could see Him asked the speaker about the man on the pulpit with him. “He is my Teacher” was his reply and Frances knew he was another of the Wise Men of today.

While in Boulder, Frances gave instructions in Divine Attunement to some of those who had been “called.” One college student was chosen to record physics not of this plane. Michael told him that this would be needed later. He also recorded instructions on other subjects from Gabriel and Raphael. Other students received varied information on different subjects. “To each shall be given,” it was Frances’ great desire to train more to be channels for some of God’s wisdom. It does not matter what cult or creed one belongs to, but the purity of heart and desire to serve God is all that counts.

She left Boulder for Washington, D. C., a few weeks before the trouble in Syria. She had been trying for a year to deliver the secret of the Russian plan to wedge through Syria to the Middle East. She was informed that something was about to take place and she was to make another effort to see the President. She was in Washington still trying when Syria was taken over by communist control.

While in Washington, Frances needed passport pictures so she went to the Anton Photograph Shop. There was another woman customer in the shop. This is how the woman described what took place. “The photographer kept snapping shots until the lady (Frances) asked him the reason he would take so many pictures just for a passport. He did not answer at first and she (Frances) pressed him for an answer. His reply was, ‘Lady, I see thousands of faces and I am trying to get them on paper.’ She (Frances) asked if he knew the reason and if he recognized any of the faces. He named George Washington as one of them which he was most interested in getting. ‘I must get that one,’ he declared – and he did. I heard the lady (Frances) say, ‘I have been on earth many times before and these are only pictures of my past.’” Later, the other woman customer literally sold all that she had, moved to Twin Falls to help support the Work, and since then has “seen” enough to write a book.

Photos taken by “Antons” in Washington D. C.

From Washington, Frances then went to New York and sent President Nasser some information concerning more dangers to the Middle East and he rushed troops to guard Syria. Noting the misunderstanding of others who were critical of his actions, Frances made great effort to explain at the various Embassies. It seemed that it was not understood that Nasser sent troops only to guard against disaster to the Middle East.

New York is another of the “marked places where His coming would be possible if there were enough help. Frances started an intense search for more Chosen Ones, again hoping that she might be able to establish the necessary conditions for His reception. She gave a talk about “A Little Child to Lead Them” one evening at the Little Congress of Healers. Their violinist played the Rosary and the sweet high-pitched voice of a little child sang the accompaniment. Some thought the violinist very clever but the violinist himself was trying to figure out where the voice was coming from. Frances explained that The Child did this to prove the truth of her words that He would come as “A Little Child to Lead Them.”

While in New York, Frances found the headquarters for the “M” influence and discovered that the deceived in charge were proud to admit being students of “M” and had the usual illusion that it was a great honor. The physical manifestation of Morya, when known as Annie Besant, had been cleverly worked into a position to take over the Theosophical Society and cause it to fail the Cause for which it was established. Wise Theosophists who knew the secret established the United Lodge of Theosophy (U.L.T.) to foster the progress of Truth, and to meet the needs of older souls of greater development who saw the necessity when the Theosophical Society was taken over by the wrong faction. Frances had intercepted a letter to a sponsor of the negative faction outlining their plan to take over the U.L.T. in New York and while in that City, had gone to their Headquarters to try to head off the plan. She discovered a well-trained student of Morya at the outer desk who was very strong in her rejection. She could have saved that Organization if there was any way to get by the blockade negative forces had already located in a position for keeping the deceived blinded. So great was the influence that Library doors were closed to make sure she would not be able to give vital information that could have saved that institution.

One of the most important trials at His “coming” was in October 1957. This was the second attempt at initiating the Third and Final Phase of the Cosmic Birth, otherwise known as the “Second Coming,” or “His final Advent.” Preparations had been made by the Wise Men to receive Him on top of the Empire State Building where they watched at times for weeks. They were off guard a few hours when the “call” came to go to the building. First there was a large light and presently there were two in the skies, showing more negative interference at play. So again God “withdrew” “The Child” and once more “The Little Man from Outer Space” failed to Come.

After the failure to receive The Child in New York, Frances was dispatched again to work in Boulder, Colorado, for His coming. Frances hoped that there would be a response which would bring about something “Real” in the way of A Place to Lay His Head, and some organization to reflect the plan which God would accept as reason for Him to release The Child who is spoken of in Revelations. This is when Interdenominational Divine Order (“I DO”) was established.

Headquarters of "I DO", Twin Falls, Idaho

Chapter XIII.

1958-1994 – Interdenominational Divine Order Comes to Support the Work of the Reincarnate Mother

Many More Miracles Take Place

After the repeated failures to secure a “safe place to lay His head,” Interdenominational Divine Order was established in Boulder, Colorado, in 1957. In 1960 it moved to Twin Falls, Idaho. In August 1961 Interdenominational Divine Order, otherwise known as I DO, was incorporated. The Organization was formed to help The Reincarnate Mother prepare such a place so God would find some ready to protect Him and He could be returned. Because I DO researched better understandings, they were Chosen to tell the story and recruit older souls whose karmic rights were in line for a part of the “first” work upon His return.

Specific work of I DO, like the Essenes in the time of Jesus, was concentrated in preparation of laborers to meet a need expected at His Advent. The greatest preoccupation was giving information which would help make His Coming possible, and establish safety for Him and His Great Plan.

After The Child was “caught up” Frances worked hard to make better understandings and recruit enough aid to make His return possible. She had been ever rejected by others who were claiming one or another of her incarnations, even if none of them showed on any other face except the One who served humanity in forms which Her loving Father had now arranged to prove for Her in this manner. At times Michael and Gabriel, the higher plane manifestations of Christ and Mary, “appeared” with her. Some reported seeing Christ “appear” through her body to further the proof of her identity. Perhaps some esoterics would be unable to explain this so-called phenomenon, but we have found that there is nothing of this nature which She could not explain even though she declared that she never knew what her Angel helpers would bring forth when frantically trying to help make understandings so necessary for the safe return of Her Child.

However fantastic this story might seem, it will be found to be the Truth. Her face changed to show the Akashic records of past incarnations when she helped mankind before and The Child “appeared” with her to further prove her identity. HE changed from a very young child to a young boy and then to a man with a beard we recognized as Christ.

Frances was now better supported in her efforts to bring “Truth to make free” and was sent by Christ on several missions to carry out the work of “opening the ways” for His return and acceptance as a “Little Child to Lead Them.”

One such mission was to help the Church of Latter-Day Saints (Mormons). Christ was trying to protect the Church, and it was time for the L.D.S. people to know a story I DO research had uncovered. HE directed Frances to share it with the Church. At one time the Apostles (of the Mormon Church) had received a “message” that someone would come to a certain gate on the Temple grounds in Salt Lake City, Utah, with a message. The message directed her to a small gate entering the Temple grounds, between the reception building and the Temple. Frances had no way to know their secret, but Christ told her to go to the gate mentioned. An L.D.S. lady from Boise, Idaho was standing at the gate on the Temple side. As Frances approached the gate it was opened by an invisible force. The Boise lady then told her that a “message” was given the Elders about someone who would come to that gate with “a vital message for the Church.” They were told the gate would open for the right one who would then go through the Temple. The Boise lady said that members of the Church had been taking turns watching at the gate. She said she had been there for two and one-half months of her three months pledge. She asked her if she was a Nephite, to which Frances answered in a question, “What is a Nephite but someone whom you do not understand?” With that the lady stepped aside to receive her on the Temple grounds. After closing the gate, the two walked together to the temple.

But when in a place that the rules of the Church forbid, she was challenged for the reasons for such a dare. She answered, “I have a vital message for the Church,” after which she was given a “run-around” from one to another Elder who misunderstood because Moroni said that a woman cannot have the power of the priesthood. Each declared that what Frances was doing could only be accomplished by a man. She answered that she did not claim “Power of the Priesthood,” but only obedience to Christ who had chosen her to deliver the Message. “If a woman cannot do it, why don’t the men do it,” she reasoned.

It was time for the veil of the Temple to be rent so the Mormons could see through it and be wise. They would do well to find out why Moroni took two tablets away and left the third. Unfortunately, when Frances was sent by Christ and the gate opened, the message He gave to save that Church was rejected because she was a woman and the evil one said no woman could do the work of God, (because ancient prophecies said a woman would expose him and bring about his downfall.)

If the Mormons could claim their God-given rights as Latter-Day Saints as they were “told” from “above,” and with open minds investigate, they would find out what Catholics discovered when they went after the same problem in their church. They would then take Moroni down from their Salt Lake Temple and put Gabriel up there to blow the horn of Truth which is His right. Moroni was this “third” Nephite, or member of the “first triad” or “trinity” who took away the tablets containing the records of the other two who originally called Joseph Smith to be a channel for the restoration of “Truth.” Again, as in many lives before, the Joseph Smith soul suffered at the hands of those who “spotted” him and his later mission to try to restore “Truth” which the Lucifer soul distorted when he worked his physical counterpart into the position of Pope in Rome. He was later called “The Black Pope” when his status was discovered. The “message” still stands ready for acceptance when understandings develop sufficiently.

Between 1957 and 1959, at the time I DO was getting underway, Frances wrote seven Booklets under the guidance of her two Teachers, Michael and Gabriel. The Booklet “Truths Recorded from Higher Planes” was ready for the press and she supposed there was nothing more to be written in it. Just as she prepared to deliver the manuscript she was “told” to add the following:

“Those who ‘study to show themselves approved’ may attain to meeting the Space Masters and will be the first to be chosen for advantages of The City Four-Square⁷. We have changed plans for the location due to negotiations taking over other places selected previously.

Things are drawing to a close. The past world and all its wearies of days will soon be gone. We invite the worthy to come to a New World willingly to help in Our cause. We invite the older souls to become Wise Men of today. There are Wise Men now who can lead and direct those who make themselves worthy to meet Space Masters We have Wise Men who know thoroughly well about the Infinite Plan of drawing the Chosen Ones together in a substantial working consciousness enveloping interests in His work which will involve whole families. Men will not be separated any more from their loved ones and homes by deceptions causing so much trouble as of the past. In a beautiful stead will be manifested man’s happiness governing over the struggles of before and arranging a complacency many never dreamed to be possible. Whole families will be given training in any enlightened phase of study they desire, and the natural way of learning will be presented from wisdoms known for many centuries past which you will easily recognize as filial to your purposes, rank and chivalry. All will find their work has taken on a life so enhancing as to destroy age marks from those who help in the Holy City. Actually, tradesmen of all manner may come and join the entry work with a freedom to help in any of the many fields needing assistance.

Footnote No. 7: The City Four-Square - The soul of Virgin Mary is called “T-Zion”, “The City Four-Square” or “White City” of Scriptural prophecy that would be established by the souls known as the four-horsemen of the Apocalypse.

We will need teachers, building contractors. Trades many will open into activity of a line to employ all in the commendatory of a spiritual encampment. There will be degrees of honor for those living in this realm with wishes for more understanding about the world's change to real happiness and much relief from strivings of the mortal way. There will be no worry over ills or aches, for all pain will cease in the land of the "free."

There will be no one too good to be in this grouping of tradesmen, for all who are seeking the right employment will alike take their places as fulfilling of a plan coming into this life or incarnation to help the Christ work, he has promised to do. So, coming assigned to the work at birth it assures an activity awaiting his arrival and he will meet with no disappointments. This employment will be for men, women and children, all to be encouraged to higher standards of training from all levels which are countless."

This message was a "call" to recruit more "hands and feet of the flesh with ears attuned to listening" to get behind the work of this Age and help with the preparation for His Advent, which everyone working around Frances knew was just around the corner of human experience.

Since The Child was "caught up" in 1955, He "appeared" with Frances only in the Astral body which could be "seen" by those whose vibratory rate is equal to it. Being given to "see", were those pure in heart who came to the Interdenominational Divine Order where their minds were conditioned so they could understand their phenomenal experiences which are known to be God's way of "calling" many. Some who came to the I DO Organization had to be helped clear the debris of former misconceptions before they had the glorious experience of "seeing Him as He is." Whenever The Child "appeared" with The Mother there was healing.

There was a very severe case of hiccoughs in a Denver Hospital. Doctors were unable to do much for the patient during his six months at the hospital. Finally, a report was given that the man was losing weight and the case seemed hopeless. It was then that Frances visited the patient. She had some trouble getting past the Superintendent who made her promise not to put the healing in the paper if she was successful. The patient was brought to a private office in the hospital where he met her. She first asked him what his religion was. He replied "Catholic," and she told him that it did not matter what faith, but she wanted to know what prayer he would offer when she asked him to pray. After a few moments of prayer, he opened his eyes in surprise. When she asked him what astonished him, he replied, "I see my dear Lord." She waited a few minutes and noted his greater astonishment. She asked him to explain what he was "seeing." His reply was, "you would not understand." She assured him that it was not her first experience with such things and if he would tell her what he saw she would explain it. He then said that he saw Virgin Mary with The Child on her lap. She asked him how old The Child appeared to be. His reply was that He might be from three to five years old, but he could not determine the age because of the white robe He wore. She told him that he would be released from the hospital in three days, and left him with the admonition to pray for others in order to make himself a channel for Divine forces which would complete his healing. Three days later she received a telephone call that he had gained five pounds and had been released. This is only one of the many miracles which prove her status as the Mother.

At the time Interdenominational Divine Order incorporated and began using the first letters of each of the three words, – I DO, Frances did not know that Ancient prophecies stated that in the Last Age "I DOers" would lead out with advancements they were to be given. Nor at the time when Frances was "told" to purchase a certain piece of land, (a great surprise to her) did she know that a group of religious people from the east had at one time located on the same property. She learned the story when investigating the reason for a cistern and other evidence of people having lived there before. After being "told" to purchase the specific location she learned there had been a Church on the property long ago. It was such a long time ago that nobody could tell her when the people moved away or where they took the Church. But we now know the location was especially marked with very high vibrations, good, fresh air, beautiful scenery, good farming land and everything to make pleasant living possible. Christ has been “seen” by many at this location.

A lady from Parma, Idaho, told I DO that, in meeting Frances, she observed a number of psychic phenomena while in her presence. Later, while in Colorado and riding to the top of a mountain to pray with Frances, the same lady smelled a fragrance. Frances said she did not wear perfume. Upon reaching the top of the mountain, Frances got out of the car and prayed a few minutes. The lady heard a choir of male voices but there was no physical choir there. Frances told her she would pray for her to see some of her past lives. The lady saw a number of facial changes shortly afterwards. As Frances prayed, the lady saw her features change to other incarnations, her skin clean up and at one time a Small Child “appeared.” She also reported seeing a light about a foot in diameter over Frances’ head.

Another supporter named Mildred from Nevada reported the following. “I have seen Mrs. Sande many times. I see her face change and feel without the help of anyone except Those Above I was guided to find her and recognize her standing. I Heard the words from above as if explaining something, saying, ‘Take me back in the sands of time where I once trod with faces of old. Once again we meet to glorify His Name!’ An experience like this could convince anyone.”

Yet another person reported the following: “I have personally witnessed symbolisms in red and white playing on the forehead of Frances Sande. It was like a movie screen where the symbols changed. I know many others who can testify to same as well as “seeing” what could be identified as “fingers of God” dressed in white robes enacting a play which foretold a very important fulfillment of prophecy which took place several weeks later. It seemed the reason was to alert a group of I DO people so they could be ready to meet the emergency. It seems that one could expect God to use Frances for anything needed at the time. So fantastic is what happens that it stands one in awe. I am a satisfied seeker who found what I was looking for in Idaho. I was guided to Twin Falls by a friend who wanted me to see what she had discovered.”

In the mid nineteen sixties, a woman wrote I DO and said she had recently attended a meeting where various phases of New Age ideas were being discussed. It seems that someone must have known that the Lady I DO say is the reincarnate Mother was present. Anyway, it was hinted that someone was in the audience who should be on the platform. This started something which brought about the invitation for that person to speak. Frances appeared to be somewhat tired or burdened at first, but as she spoke, she changed from a middle-aged woman to a beautiful young person whom people all over the hall recognized as Virgin Mary. One declared she saw an open book appear on her forehead. Others claimed many symbols were appearing and changing on her forehead. Everybody was astonished with the wisdom she expressed, and the help she had from higher planes.

A Minister who visited the I DO Center was asked to pray for an answer to questions she had in mind concerning what is going on at this location of greater Cosmic Interest. She was “told” from Above, “It is the working out of a Cosmic Birth on this plane.”

In 1965 Frances visited India with a promise that their Kutch and Kashmir wars would cease if she could see their high officials. Within fourteen hours she had talked with Shastri and their President. If Mr. Shastri had given her permission to meet the need herself, he would not have become a victim of a plot against his life. She was empowered by the greatest Angel guardians of humanity who guided her every move and provided the necessary proofs that hers was a “Divine Mission” as reported in the New Delhi newspapers at the time. It was announced that “Mystical Miss I DO is in India with a Message of Peace.” The concluding feature of Hierarchical provision, confirming her mission as Divinely authorized, was a very large and bright star which has accompanied many of her missions. Indian papers had many questions concerning the Star, asking if anyone could explain it. After conferring with the highest Indian officials, Frances left India, giving the answer to reporters, the contents of which were: “He whom some call Buddha, others know as Brahma, Muhammedans recognize as Michael (leader of the Hosts of heaven), and Christians call Christ, sent someone to India with a message of Peace. It was His Star that followed her plane.” Appealing to those great religions, the Kutch War ended in eight days and the Kashmir was resolved shortly thereafter.

Because it was foreseen that the Vietnam War would be deadlocked in a climax involving great world danger, Christ sent Frances with a message to the Leaders of Buddhists in many locations, the most important of whom was the Lady Poona of a Royal Bangkok family who is known to be the Leader of three hundred million Buddhists. The idea was to get the message to Buddhists everywhere so Buddha, who is known to Christians as The King of Kings, might return to bring world peace. Lady Poona wanted Frances to tour the Buddhist world with the message, but Frances asked her to give it to the Buddhists in the way she knew they would accept it, while she would go to others who needed the message even more than Buddhists whose foundation in reincarnation made it easier for them to understand. The message was “When it looks like annihilation, look up and see what I will do.”

Another time when Christ “appeared” with Frances to heal a loved one who needed physical help, the lady cried all night and was headed for confession in a Catholic Church the next morning. She was so emotionally upset that the manager of the apartment house where the lady lived, scolded the (unrecognized) Mother stating, “You cannot do this in my apartments.” The reincarnate Mother replied by question, “Do you think I can control Christ or what He wants to do?” She added that she would explain to the upset lady that Christ “appeared” to her because He loved her and symbolized a “calling” for some part of His work of this Age. This instance is being related to make our readers more aware of what panic could take place at His Advent when those now ignorant of His ways will be forced to “wish to know.”

Because Frances, the reincarnate Mother in the Last Age, despaired of being understood before The Second Advent of The Christ of the New Age, only the most basic facts were given in the hope that some more developed older souls, born to be among the Chosen, would respond to this call for help in securing the necessary situations to make the return of “The Child” possible. HE showed her that The Advent is now long overdue. “The Child” could not be returned to this dimension physically until certain dangers would be removed. She did everything possible to bring about the right conditions, but misunderstandings made progress very slow. HE “appeared” to the reincarnate Blavatsky and assigned the work, following always to make sure The Great Plan would not again suffer the fate of so many other efforts when appropriated by The Great Deceiver.

After intense research on esoteric subjects, an elderly man by the name of William Webber, a Librarian in a San Francisco Library, came to the conclusion that Idaho was to be the location where “IDEAN MOTHER” could be located. He reported that he spent thirteen years in the area of Twin Falls and Eden which is also in Magic Valley. He never found what he was looking for until a strange lady picked him up one Sunday when he was visiting that area a number of years ago. He stated that he had a whole night of visions confirming his Find and he then knew at last he had discovered what he had been seeking for so long. Sometime later he discovered she was also the one others claimed they proved without a doubt to be the reincarnate Mother.

Others who met Frances gave testimonials of their encounter.

Testimonial One: When it became possible for me to SEE, I noticed the figure of a Child on the forehead. Her features changed to Virgin Mary with a deep power mark down the forehead from the hairline to the right eyebrow. I saw other incarnations which I am not permitted to tell at this time.

Testimonial Two: I have personally witnessed symbolisms in red and white playing on the forehead of the Lady I met. It was like a movie screen where the symbols changed. I know many others who can testify to same as well as Seeing what could be identified as “fingers of God” dressed in white robes enacting a play which foretold a very important fulfillment of prophecy which took place several weeks later. It seemed the reason was to alert a group of “I DO” people so they could be ready to meet the emergency. It seems that one could expect God to use this Lady for anything needed at the time. So fantastic is what happens that it stands one in awe. I am a satisfied seeker who found what I was looking for in Idaho. I was guided to Twin Falls by a friend who wanted me to see what she had discovered.

Testimonial Three: For years I had been seeking for something more than the usual illusions of common groups professing to represent Truth. I was getting tired of jumping from the frying pan into the fire of another Burn. In my despair I prayed for guidance to the REAL. Soon I found myself becoming interested in going to Idaho to investigate the "I DO" claims. I told friends in California that this would be my last trip if I didn't find something of proof that God's work was being represented. It happened that The reincarnate Mother was on location at the "I DO" Center. We were sitting at a table when I began to SEE CHRIST "appearing" through her form, and later I learned she is the reincarnate Virgin Mary. While I needed no other proof, much more has transpired to add to the certainty that at last I had found what I was seeking.

Testimonial Four: Shortly after meeting The reincarnate Mother, I saw several facial and body changes which I learned is God's way of showing past incarnations when time to be recognized. Some of the changes I witnessed were Joan of Arc, Virgin Mary and some Presidents of the United States who I am not free to mention. I also saw symbolisms done in red on a white background which appeared on her forehead. I became so interested in what I found that I gave up everything dear to me to follow and serve. I have moved to Idaho to be close to "I DO" people who have access to information I have never been able to find anywhere else.

Testimonial Five: For years I had followed to see if there was anything in the story others told about the Lady the "I DO" people declare is reincarnate Virgin Mary. One day I was lamenting "why can't I SEE if others can?" I HEARD HIM say, "If you will keep looking you will SEE." Just then He surprised me by appearing as though overshadowing, yet within her. "Who would ever have thought of that?" I exclaimed through my tears of joy and gratitude for the proof that the two are as ONE.

Testimonial Six: Since contacting "I DO" I have witnessed the woman you mention so many times, change features from a fine face of Virgin Mary to a man with a full beard, kind face, large violet-blue eyes who looks like pictures you have of Christ. I have also seen figures in white standing at her side, ethereal looking, but the difference is such that these would be people from the other side of life, other than her past incarnations. My niece whose extra-sensory perception is only recently developing so she can See, noted a man with Roman nose, gray hair. She also saw a woman with large deep blue eyes, curly hair and rather round face she recognized from the past. We understand this is proof that life does not end with death nor begin with birth.

Testimonial Seven: Frances was speaking, and soon her features changed into a younger middle-aged woman, and eventually into a beautiful young woman whom I recognized as Virgin Mary. She spoke with the voice of an angel. That's when HE first "appeared"... The CHILD! The experience began when I SAW a pair of eyes "appearing" directly behind The reincarnate Mother's eyes. Another Soul was sharing her form, and was manifesting into the physical world in and through her body. She disappeared for a brief moment and I SAW the most angelic baby take her place, dressed in a white satin gown. HE had the most beautiful blue eyes, and HE stood smiling! Then she reappeared and the tiny form disappeared. Then HE "appeared" again, and again; each time HE appeared, HE was a little older, at first a young Child, then a twelve-year-old boy in a bluish robe. Each time The reincarnate Mother reappeared, she looked more beautiful and more angelic. Each time the CHILD re-"appeared", HE took on an older form until The King of Kings Himself stood in her place, in His Eternal splendor, wearing White Robe and beard, HIS arms outstretched as though embracing the whole universe. Even then the room disappeared and became as translucent. The bedspread transformed into a glistening lake of glass-like-onto-crystal, blue and quicksilver, shimmering as it expanded in all directions. HE stood in her place, and stayed there for what seemed an Eternity. Eventually, The reincarnate Mother re-materialized. HE started to disappear, not all at once... but ever so gradually. The experience was ending the way it had started. She reappeared; HE disappeared, and then re-"appeared" again until He finally disappeared for the last time.

In the late nineteen sixties, Interdenominational Divine Order were "Told" that the publishing work was done for this Age and that they should now await "That Day" when "all eyes SEE" what they were GIVEN to SEE. Since the late nineteen sixties, no one was getting anything at all from Above because the world had entered into a period of SILENCE as the scriptures prophesied would be the case previous to that Great Change all esoteric peoples expect at any moment. Even "I DO" were not GIVEN anything more than they were entrusted with before the period of Silence began, and nothing more will be given until "That Day."

For the next quarter century, Frances lived out her life in town and on the farm, and continued "Doing" His work both from her Headquarters located on Main Street in Twin Falls, Idaho, and from her farm in Murtaugh, just outside of Twin Falls, where she held weekly Sunday afternoon prayer meetings with Faithful Ones, except of course when she was away on missions "In His Name." During her remaining years, she was sent by Christ on many missions all over the world to find more of "His Blossoms" and instruct them in Divine Attunement. These souls were told to paddle their own canoe until That Day when He would return as A Little Child to Lead Them!

Headquarters before "I DO" work was put on hold

The farm where Frances lived until her passing in 1994

Chapter XIV.

The “Second Coming - “HIS Final Advent”

Third and Final Phase of the Cosmic Birth

The First Phase of The Child’s “Cosmic Birth” was “the production of a body for HIM by Frances Fisher Sande, the reincarnate Gabriel-soul, in April, 1936. The Second Phase of The Child’s “Cosmic Birth” took place in late 1954 to stop a bomb at the moment it would have been detonated. Then, on Easter Sunday, April 10th, 1955 when, because of dangers from the “great dragon” personality who “stood to swallow up The Child,” it was necessary for HIM to be “caught up” from the physical plane until more adequate preparation could be made for HIS reception and protection.

The Third and Final Phase of the “Cosmic Birth” has taken place on D DAY, when the skies were filled with the glory of HIS return. This marked the beginning of a time when “all eyes could SEE HIM.” A great machine started rolling and the world can now begin to understand that HE has incarnated for the work of this, the New Age. It took approximately eighteen months from the time HE returned, when the CHOSEN were the first to SEE Him, and the Day HE dared to disclose Himself physically for all to acclaim.

Frances Sande passed from this plane in 1994. Her next incarnation has taken place and God has released His Holy Son to His Mother at the Third and Final Phase of the “Cosmic Birth” which took place on “D Day,” when the skies were filled with the glory of His return.

The Child has now been returned to the reincarnate Mother in Her new form, and a great machine has started rolling since His return to this dimension “As He Left” and now “all eyes can See A Little Child to Lead Them” for the work of the New Age. It has taken approximately eighteen months from the time He returned, when the Chosen were the first to See Him, until that Day when “all eyes began to See” apparitions “in the skies.” The Called are now being Chosen and fitted into their respective positions for advancement of the world in this New Age.

Nations can now begin to understand enough to get the situation in hand. All men can now “wish to know” what took place. Some are declaring it is the expected “Advent of Christ.” Many are still doubting, but all are being forced to seek answers because so many changes are taking place, all mankind needs to try hard to understand. A great Spiritual Rapture is gradually taking over all cults and creeds, with all making a desperate effort to understand enough to apply for their own needs.

Watch and understand what is happening as God casts down all statues, idols and institutions which were done to honor the great deceiver, and watch the rending of the veils of Temples dedicated to the deceiver by those who were deceived. Wise Men of this Age know that “when all eyes see,” some of what is being revealed is “the dead walking” in new forms if now in incarnation. As the veil of matter of this third dimension is being rent, we are now able to SEE the “dead walking” in other dimensions if they haven’t reincarnated yet. The world is now learning about God’s provision for identification of souls in reincarnate bodies. This is called “Cosmic TV” by Wise Men of the New Age who have already experienced it many times. The idea is gradually coming into more general usage as the world can now be educated to understand sufficiently that “seeing the dead walking” (through the veil) does not cause panic. Many Wise Men are standing by to handle emergencies. Panic could bring disaster, so “with all thy getting, get understanding” seems a most important admonition at this time. More attention to this advice is imperative if Armageddons are to be lightened and peace come about by His Advent.

Now that “that Day when all eyes see” is upon us, converts can begin to recognize the Truth about His many incarnations always as a Child; they can either turn against their mistaken leaders, or make the mistake of fighting against Truth which God is giving to mankind at this time. Those who rebel against Truth and continue to stand in the way of “His Will be done” will be “cast into perdition” with their deceivers if too stubborn to admit they were wrong. Some, who are more dedicated to the negative faction and pose a greater danger to His Plan, or the safety of His Child, are being transmuted by the Fire of Divine Mind, or otherwise removed from this dimension at this time. Divine Mind is taking absolute control today and is demanding precedence for those whose rights have been earned in many incarnations of martyring various Causes for the progress of humanity as they accompanied Him to “sheep I have of other folds ye know not of” through many lives of service.

Now that the hand of God is proving which faction and what works are approved, mortals can begin to recognize Truth and spot deceivers fostering misleading concepts. Earthquakes, fires and other disasters are levelling institutions not representing God’s principles. Perhaps now converts will begin to realize something must have been wrong. The Bible mentions the rending of the veil of the Temple which in that time symbolized something wrong within. Also, the hand of the Infinite was seen in the destruction of the Tower of Babel. Some space and atomic projects endangering the harmony of other planets are meeting with a similar fate. There is “weeping and gnashing” because of ignorance of underlying facts concerning the harmonious plan for the universe. One of the most basic facts concerns reincarnation (in the school of lives) advancing the soul toward graduation from this planet to another of greater cooperation with Cosmic Laws made when the universe was created.

As the “Truth to make free” is being known, much time, energy and funds previously used for various efforts to deal with the unknown can be channeled into meeting problems of this world and the third dimension before probing other spheres, planes, planets and dimensions which were being given too much attention in the past. Mortals can now begin to realize that when the soul evolves sufficiently the information they were trying to get prematurely can now be given without effort and that no matter how hard they tried before this time, if the information was too advanced for the soul, it was withheld. Masters of Wisdom, now incarnate on earth from other planets have the answers and mortals can now begin accepting what They have to offer (but only when Christ confirms their status).

Scriptures stated that “it is not God’s will any should perish,” yet those who are standing the world in jeopardy must be “taken”. Reason tells us that it is much kinder for a soul to be removed from the possibility of making karma against progress than to be allowed to make the mistake and have to suffer a number of future lives for an offence against the Will of God. The Bible mentions the sufferings possible “to the third and fourth generation (incarnation) of them that hate Me.” As to what to expect from now going forward, a heavy toll will be taken of those with wrong intentions.

Finally, Nations and Religions are now poised to “see” Him in keeping with “the way He left” them. Buddhists are seeing Buddha, the Hindu are seeing Brahma, Occultists are seeing Kuthumi, North American Indians are seeing Hiawatha, Christians are seeing Christ, and all are “seeing” the Son of God “As He left the last time”, during the second phase of the Cosmic Birth, “As a little Child to Lead Them.” It has ever been this way when He went to “sheep I have of other pastures ye know not of.”

His “Star⁸”

Footnote No. 8: “HIS Star” - Photographed by Mr. Mulvrey, a photographer for the Denver Post.

Addendum.

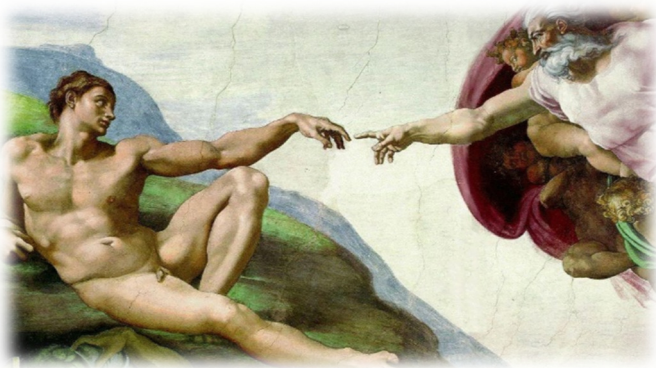

The Book of Lives of the Two Chosen by God to Lead Humanity Toward “A New Heaven and A New Earth, With Former Things Passed Away.”

Symbols were used by ancient peoples to tell stories of souls before language forms were established by alphabets. One feather meant “Truth,” where two feathers were used to symbolize the two souls who functioned as one. These were Michael and Gabriel on higher planes, as well as whatever physical forms were used to manifest them on earth. For more protection, the King of Kings frequently manifested as “hidden.” Sainted souls, known on higher planes as “Angels,” always incarnated on earth when it was necessary to afford the right kind of leadership for the progress of humanity. They were always great Leaders. Each life was carefully planned to give some progress for humanity which mortal progress made imperative for whatever Age the need manifested.

When identifying the various incarnations of Michael and Gabriel as They incarnated on earth throughout this, our Fifth Race, one has to account for over-lapping incarnations, where one physical plane puppet stands ready to take over when another might be eliminated, only one form being used at a time for the expression of the over-soul directing from Above. The Gabriel-Soul is credited with over 525 incarnations since the time that Great Soul took over the functions of the Lucifer-Soul in the heaven planes. The following Book of Lives of “The Two” is a retrospective during this, our Adamic Race; it focuses on Their earthly incarnations and is presented chronologically, from the Beginning to the Last Age, as we have now entered into the New Age.

■ In the Beginning (of our Adamic Race)

Adam (Michael-Soul)

“The First Who Will be Last, and the Last Who Will be First”

Careful research proves there were aborigines, cavemen and others of lesser intelligence before the time of Adam, but Adam seems to be the first account of God being represented on earth by a physical form. This might be a strong statement in the face of mortal thinking today, but records we have found seem to bear out the truth of this statement. If this continues to prove to be a fact it is reasonable to believe that Adam was the same soul which in a later incarnation became perfected enough to be born again of God and known as Christ, the One Initiator. The Bible clearly states that “He was from the beginning,” and we must agree that it also says the beginning was with Adam. Then it is true that God, through His Son, Adam, is the Father of all humanity (the spiritual side of humanity). Eve then is recognized as the mother of material man and the beginning of sin. It seems that after God decided men should no longer be born after a material fashion, Eve changed things by temptations and populated the earth from a material union instead of a spiritual. There are accounts of “Mind Born” children of a very ancient civilization, showing considerable spiritual attunement was necessary to produce a higher type of mortal. No doubt Adam himself was the first one of this type. With materialism as it is today there are few who will be Mind-Born in this Age, except children of Masters of Wisdom who naturally keep a higher mental concept. Some of His Disciples will earn this right soon and all men will rise in consciousness sometime to make it possible. All were born with equal rights for development even though some have not taken advantage of their birthright.

■ In the Land of the Pharaohs...

Osiris (Michael-Soul) and The Second Isis (Gabriel-Soul)

The physical counterpart of Lucifer, whose name was Isis (the first Isis), confused the plan for that Age and cut Osiris (Christ) into thirteen pieces (cut the Disciples away from their Master) to spoil the Plan for that Age. The story credits the “Second Isis,” or soul later known as Virgin Mary, the Mother, who tried to find the Disciples. She built a shrine wherever she found one of them.

■ 10 generations after Adam

Noah (Gabriel-Soul)

Histories of man-kind prove that when world conditions become so dangerous that Leaders striving for needed reforms couldn't handle the situation, something else did. Sinking of Atlantis and Lemuria, and the flood of Noah's time are good examples. Some thought of what happened as forces of nature or natural disasters which mortals could not control. In the light of facts about Cosmic Law, made when the world was created, when “free-wills” were misused against progress, the dangers created for posterity, together with the “prayers of righteous men” suffering heavy crosses, evoked a “thus far and no further” from the Cosmos. Mortals who only thought they had no control, had yet to learn that if they had kept the precepts of all good religions, the disasters their wrongs evoked would not have been created.

“Man's extremity” has become “God's opportunity” to force a change “in the twinkling of an eye” with surprises those who have researched the facts realize the world is not ready for. In the days of Atlantis and Lemuria, as well as when Noah came to blow the horn of warnings, so today the same Gabriel has long been giving warnings to any who would listen. The response has been much the same as in Ages past when Great Martyrs came to give guidance and foretell the future, only to be misunderstood, burned at the stake, or otherwise eliminated by those they tried to help head off disasters.

Krishna (Michael-Soul)

The Reincarnate Blavatsky found people of foreign countries resisted Christian missionaries because they realized Christians failed to understand the basic principles underlying repeated lives, and felt even though they have some great advanced truths to share about another life of Buddha, Krishna, Kheops or Khattab, who were other incarnations of Christ, they were in no position to tell others their great leaders were not of God, when better informed religions knew they represented Christ and Mary in their various incarnations.

Krishna is a major deity in Hinduism. He is worshipped as the eighth avatar of the god Vishnu and also as the supreme God in his own right. He is the god of compassion, tenderness and love in Hinduism, and is one of the most popular and widely revered among Indian divinities. Krishna's birthday is celebrated every year by Hindus on Krishna Janmashtami. Krishna is usually depicted with a flute in his hand.

The story of Krishna contains a double concealment - Krishna is both a god disguised as a mortal and a prince disguised as a commoner. Accordingly, the myths contain many metaphors of disguise, such as a spark within a pile of ashes or a mighty sword in its scabbard, and these hint at Krishna's dual purpose as the punisher of human deeds but also as a bringer of enlightenment.

■ 26th Century B.C. ≈ A Very Active Age for the Positive Faction in the Land of Pharaohs

Thotmes (Michael-Soul)

and

Thoth/Thot (Gabriel-Soul)

The “gods” of the Ancients in Atlantis and Lemuria, were only their way of expressing the mortal conception of souls who had earned immortality, or “eternal life” with its “Cosmic Power” rewards. The idea, promising the same for all who earned the right, was clearly and simply expressed by Jesus in “The works that I do and even greater.” He knew of the unlimited possibilities of souls working their ways toward perfection and intelligence until becoming “One with the All” as Thoth so beautifully expressed it in his “Emerald Tablets.” In that life Gabriel was Thoth (Thot) and Michael Thotmes (the Thinker) whose thoughts became Thoth. Sometimes they worked as two, inhabiting two forms, other times “The Thinker” remained on higher planes and kept a close rapport with the Infinite where the heavenly thinking was channeled through “The Thinker” to the one on the physical plane who then became as “The Thought” manifest. After “The Thinker” or Child of the Last Age was “caught up” from the physical plane, He has been manifesting through The Mother who during that time was the “Thought,” the same soul who was once called “Thoth.”

The heart, feather, staff (in the right hand), book or scroll (in the right hand) was used as symbols of the Positive faction. Also, the Ankh symbol was the key of the Positive mysteries. Thoth, or the Son of the Father of that Age carried the Key or Ankh which in truth symbolizes the everincarnating Son of God, the key to all the mysteries. If one looks at it carefully the Ankh appears to be a Child. In Truth it is, the Christ Child, the Key to everything good of every Age when He incarnated to be “all things to all men.”

Kheops (Michael-Soul) and The Sphinx (Gabriel-Soul)

The many atrocities against The Great Pyramid and the Sphinx which represented Christ, were perpetuated by the servants of evil. Napoleon was an esoteric of the negative side, the physical puppet for forces of evil for his time. He knocked the chin and nose off the Sphinx to prove his pledge against Christ who in one life was Kheops whom God told to protect the Positive records by building the Great Pyramid. The male Sphinx who guards His Father's pyramid, where “Truth” records were stored, represents the Gabriel soul, guarding Michael's “Truths to Make Free.”

1950-1775 B.C. and 1850-1670 B.C.

Abraham (Michael-Soul) and Isaac (Gabriel-Soul)

As biblical pioneer of the idea that there is only one God, Abraham is on a par with Saint Paul and Muhammad, responsible for a "complete departure from everything that has gone before in the evolution of culture and sensibility". In other words, he changed the world.

15th Century B.C.

Pharaoh Amenhotep II (Michael-Soul)

The story of Moses in the bulrushes came from a clever play of the negative faction who were in charge of the destruction of other babies, and responsible for saving their own most important soul. Allah had warned the Pharaoh at the time, Amenhotep II, a Michael incarnation, about the plan of Lucifer to incarnate a physical “puppet” in his family, but the deceptions were so cleverly done the Pharaoh didn't realize the Moses baby was the danger. The real story is staggering and we could not expect Christians to believe it because Christianity has become too infiltrated with the wrong information. We can only hope and pray this small facet of “Truth” will challenge for an investigation.

■ Aaron (Gabriel-Soul)

Records left by the Positive faction honor the genius of every Age, while the negative faction who always followed to plunder, twisted facts to defame those who earned the honor and then left records to credit leaders of their own faction. Efforts such as playing up Moses and defaming Aaron are examples of how the negative faction diverted honor and respect from those who earned it and credited those who didn't in all Ages.

The Gabriel-Soul was portrayed as a turtle. His shell was marked with divisions symbolizing how many “unseen” souls of authority served as a canopy of protection over him. The turtle (symbol of Aaron) is shown with the burden of the “rod” of power on his back, around which were entwined the crocodile (evil one) following and biting the tail of the alligator (Michael). The turtle is comparable to the usual understanding of Gabriel who became “the balancer,” and whose soul sometimes was symbolized with the “scales of justice” to “weigh the hearts.”

This is the same symbol used to prove the soul of Aaron to be used to serve as “the rod of iron” in the hand of the Michael manifestation for that day, Pharaoh Amenhotep II. Moses has been credited with much honor for bringing water from the rock with Aaron's rod. In symbolism “water” means “Truth” which was the attribute of Michael and Gabriel.

The Mormons, who declare that a woman cannot have the power of the priesthood, need to be informed that the soul once known on earth as Virgin Mary at one time manifested on earth as Aaron, the first of the Aaronic priesthood who also incarnated among the original Latter-Day Saints. Soul genealogy proves that Aaron was vested with the Powers of the Priesthood to tap that Source of Akashic Records.

■ 1390-1360 B.C.

Nefertiti (Gabriel-Soul)

Queen Nefertiti of Egypt was one of the most famous women in antiquity. Her name translates to "The Beautiful One is Come." She was loved because of work against evils of her time. She never stopped but raised many lids off deceptions such as now can be revealed to the insomnious. Gracious beings do not just grow – they are guided hierarchically into perfection.

■ 1347-1338 B.C.

Tut-Ankh-Amon (Michael-Soul and Gabriel-Soul - “Two-in-One”)

“The Child” was once called TUT (two crosses united in one), Ank (Key). At that time both Michael and Gabriel lived in the same body and wise Men of that Age symbolized their recognition by marking the head piece with proof, as well as putting “Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me” in the hands of the mummy.

The “Ank” was the key of eternal life, His own symbol which is shown in His hand. The case in which the mummy was put is covered with gold and His figure is cut into the coffin lid. In His hands are the symbols of the “Rod and Staff” and on His head-piece are done two serpents of wisdom, intended to signify “The Twins.”

■ 1011-971 B.C.

David (Gabriel-Soul)

David used a sling-shot to kill the Giant (Lucifer) of his day who arranged for killing him in other lives. The list of his services to God is a very long one. Gabriel was always there with the Saints whenever there was Truth to again restore.

■ 9th Century B.C.

Elijah (Michael-Soul) and Elias - a.k.a. Elisha (Gabriel-Soul)

Since Lucifer’s Cosmic Power was revoked in October 1955, there is nothing which can withstand “Twice your power” which Michael (Elijah) promised his son (Elias) who at that time foresaw the need if he was to return in another Age (the Last Age) and finally win over Lucifer which was his soul right and has already been accomplished by the reincarnate Elias (Frances Sande) who has since then worked frantically to spare the deceived from an “into the pit” which could result from lack of right information.

■ 8th Century B.C.

Isaiah - a.k.a. Esaias (Gabriel-Soul)

When the Judgment Day will come, from what the Scriptures say, “I will send you Esaias (Isaiah) before that great and awful day of The Lord.” The Judgment Day and “The Advent” are not the same as is the usual misunderstanding of most Christians, Cults and Creeds who have cause to think in the same terms because facts have been twisted by mortal minds who are “the blind leading the blind.” The Judgement Day will follow within several years of “That Day” of His advent, and will eliminate all who haven’t accepted the great changes which will begin with “The Second Coming” in this Age.

■ 624-560 B.C.

Gautama Buddha (Michael-Soul and Gabriel-Soul - “Two-in-One”)

Siddhartha Gautama (in Sanskrit) - was born in Lumbini in northern India in about the fifth or sixth century BCE. At the age of 29 he left his wealthy and privileged background in search of enlightenment. After six years of searching, he won enlightenment under the Bodhi-tree at Bodh Gaya. Soon after this he delivered his first sermon, the essence of which was the four noble truths. He spent the next forty-five years teaching and, in the process, attracted a large communal following known as the Sangha. The fingers are joined together and form “two eyes” symbolizing the dual manifestation of Michael and Gabriel.

■ 6th Century B.C.

Ananda Buddha (Gabriel-Soul)

Ananda, Buddha's cousin, friend, and favorite disciple, and a man of prodigious memory, recited Buddha's lessons (the Sutras).

Daniel (Gabriel-Soul)

At times Gabriel’s efforts to enlighten a physical form being used for a channel of Lucifer on the earth plane, would break through with the information when the counterpart of Lucifer was begging the Hierarchy for identification. When interpreting the dream of Nebuchadnezzar, Daniel perceived the secret of the identity of the king, saying, “Thou art this head of gold.” Genghis Khan prayed for an answer as did also Napoleon whose Lucifer over-soul did not want them to know what soul they represented in those incarnations. Daniel, an incarnation of Gabriel would have been the only one who would get this information for the king because it was Gabriel's position to give whatever advancements necessary to "spot" an incarnation of Lucifer.

■ 5th Century B.C.

Pericles (Michael-Soul and Gabriel-Soul - "Two-in-One")

During Sunday prayer meetings in the early 1970's, the reincarnate Mother displayed a bust of Pericles and explained this record as being a dual manifestation of Michael and Gabriel: Michael overshadowing from "Above" in and through the features of Gabriel "Below" symbolized by the helmet being dropped down over the face. The following quote is an excerpt of the first time she mentioned it during one of the meetings.

"In many lives They lived only in one form. The form that identified one on this plane would vanish and the other one would be sitting there in his place. Sometimes, I wish that we had that bust that I brought back from Athens... yes, Pericles, it's in Twin (Twin Falls). Remind me that I want you folks to see that. I picked it up in Athens a couple of years ago. The man who had it was just selling things to tourists, and I asked him the story of it. He told me a story, quite a silly story, and then after he was through telling me,

I said 'Now I'll tell you the Truth about him.' But I purchased it first, because I was afraid of his price if he knew the truth about it!!!"

"It has a cap on the head, a sort of helmet, with eyes and a nose... Pericles was this one Above (Michael) working through him (Gabriel), and when the one from Above took over the form, it was like this helmet dropped down over the features. When I asked the fellow what it was, he said 'Well, there was a bald-headed man once, who had to wear a...' and he went on like that! Anyway, it pays to have 'eyes to See,' and to know the stories."

■ 4th and 5th Century B.C.

Socrates (Gabriel-Soul)

The Scriptures declare that "not even a sparrow falleth" but it is known by what men usually think of as God. Where is your reason, have you no God? Your soul did not just hatch, your body wasn't just born, something is behind your being here. Isn't it worth the trouble to investigate? Socrates, an incarnation of Gabriel, got the hemlock cup for making men think.

■ 4th Century B.C.

Olympia (Gabriel-Soul) ≈ Alexander the Great (Michael-Soul)

The first “Three Heads” are found together in the Age of Alexander the Great as Alexander (Michael), his mother Olympia (Gabriel), and Phillip of Macedonia (Lucifer), his tyrant father who was the Master “M” called at the time “Anti-Pater”, sometimes called “The Wolf” because that was the soul symbol for the anti-christ. When Alexander declared that the Persian Moon, or light of darkness, would be eclipsed by the Sons of Macedonia, it was his way of saying that the Positive Masters would over-power the Negative One who was his own father in that day.

■ 1st Century B.C. to 1st Century A.D.

■ 4 B.C. -28 A.D.

Virgin Mary (Gabriel-Soul) and John the Baptist (Michael-Soul)

Amon-Ra was an incarnation of the soul known on higher planes as Gabriel, who many times personified what was known to Ancients as “The Hidden Deity,” or what Christians might call “The Father.” Jesus called Michael and Gabriel “The Fathers” and surely understood His relationship as one with them. Where He said “I and my Father are one,” He was speaking of the Deity personified as “hidden within.” Gabriel came many times to earth in a physical form containing “The Hidden One.” John the Baptist served as the physical counterpart of “The Hidden One” until he left this plane and “The Hidden One” became one with Jesus. Likewise, when Jesus was gone Virgin Mary embodied “The Hidden One” until she left this plane. Upon Paul’s conversion He began to serve in that capacity. It is a very long, deeply esoteric story which would take many books to explain fully. The “two feathers” of Amon-Ra symbolized that He served in that capacity. Hermanubis was known to have been the compound of the God Horus (King of Kings soul) and Anubis (soul of Virgin Mary). Egyptian Wise Men knew this to be true of King Tut, and those with “eyes to see” can recognize it in the symbolism shown on the King Tut mummy, which in several ways proves the “two in one” soul identity.

Through the many interpretations of the original Bible, mistakes were made which now bring contention among students who “get lost in the letter,” and fail to allow for human mistakes of mortals who might have made them. It is interesting to see that some accounts claim the Disciples asked Jesus if John could be Elias (Elisha). Original accounts showed they asked about Elijah. Some accounts say

John was asked if he was Elijah and denied it. Again, others claim he denied being Elias. The Truth seems to be that John the Baptist was Elijah, and Jesus admitted this to the Disciples, but interpreters, or perhaps typesetters wrote it as Elias. Had John been asked if he was Elijah, he would have had to crawl around it to keep “unspotted.” Elias was the son of Elijah so it was in keeping to deny it, as also it was right for Jesus to have implied that John was Elijah. It can easily be seen that Christ and His Disciples accepted reincarnation when the Disciples were asking if John could be Elijah. Jesus did not tell them they were wrong, or “ye do err” as at other times when they were mistaken, but answered, “Elijah is already come, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed.” and the next verse states, “Then the Disciples understood that He spake unto them of John the Baptist.” What could be plainer? While memory is not usually given to anyone unless he has some specific work to do which requires his having this information, it is possible that at times great souls are not allowed to remember part of the work before their time. This has been noticed by many who knew very little about facts until it was necessary for them to be awakened to accomplish that which they reincarnated to do.

4 B.C.-30 A.D.

Jesus of Nazareth

To understand the life of Jesus of Nazareth, one must consider that His mission was that of restoring Truth and rescuing the suffering Jews from the negative teachings of Moses.

Moses was taken on Mt. Sinai to receive the Ten Commandments because he was the leader of sinners. He had actually built a mountain of sin and needed help from God who knew of the deception of “the elect” who had been “chosen” by “the lord of deceptions.” Because Moses thought he was serving “the Lord God,” we are told that “Michael” (Christ) “contended with Lucifer for the body of Moses” after he passed this plane. If “body” also meant “people” who were deceived, Michael is still contending for the Jews who suffered the purges Jesus foresaw when saying “Weep not for me, but for your children and your children’s children.” He knew if they rejected His effort to save them from the real “wilderness” of wrong ideas Moses was deceived into believing was Freedom, they would in Ages to come suffer until they learned “Truth to Make Free.” The two factions of Jews whom Michael has been successful in enlightening somewhat were purged by the faction who were followers of “the great deceiver” using Moses to misguide them long ago.

Jesus attained the Archangel status (Seventh Degree Initiation) in that much prophesied life as the long-awaited Messiah, and took over the Lucifer-Soul (Moses)’s position in the Heavens; in doing so, he pushed out “The Firemaker” or “eighth god” whom Scriptures prophesied “would be left out” in that “Last Age,” and took up the Hierarchical controls on behalf of the Positive faction in its mission to reestablish Truth, Justice and Freedom for all mankind. Over the next two thousand years, Jesus kept unspotted and worked alongside the Michael and Gabriel incarnations to prepare a safe haven for The Child’s return in the Last Age. When that mission failed after Master Moria discovered “The Child” and caused Him to be “caught up”, Jesus was tasked with organizing older souls on the “inner” to establish security for the protection of the Child upon His return to His Mother’s arms: “A Little Child to Lead Them” and to direct God’s work in the New Age, according to prophesies recorded in the Book of Revelations written by Saint John the Apostle following the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus.

Saint Paul “Formerly Saul of Tarsus” (Gabriel-Soul)

Records called “the second book” contain twisted Truth, veiled for deceptions. This is why Paul, a previously deceived “elect” spoke so plainly in II Cor: Ch. 3 about the “veils” of Moses whom he had finally discovered was the deceiver’s puppet of his Age.

Greater, or “older souls” were always the target of the antichrist. They were “The Very Elect” Scriptures declare “would be deceived if possible.” At times it was possible, as the time Saul was deceived into serving “the holy ghost” or the “Jehovah” (the “Lord”) of the Jews, into persecuting the Christians.

He was given the power to blind one who was accused of being a sorcerer. The negative faction cleverly accused a member of the opposite faction of being a sorcerer if the protection of “the two” was so great they couldn’t handle the victim. The accusation served to turn away help they might seek against them. “Witchcraft” was a common accusation of any they wished to eliminate. Burning by “fire” was used to symbolize the power of “The Firemaker” or “eighth god” whom Scriptures prophesied “would be left out” in that “Last Age.” Where the greater “unseen” Powers of the Hierarchical controls are portrayed, the Positive faction use “seven” to identify those they accept, while the negative faction use the number “eight.”

It is said Lucifer always tried to “Shine,” or steal the credit due Michael for himself. The Kabbala Unveiled by MacGregor Mathers calls the Eve soul “Baima, the mother in whom they stumbled.” It identified “our little sister” or Virgin Mary’s soul as “Microprosopus” who was one with “Macroprosopus” (Michael) and tells of the “peace” which was always the result of their “Unity.” This also means the coming together of The Mother and Child, whether manifesting in one body or as two separate individuals. Their mission was to “Unveil” or open eyes, so it is easy to reason that it was by the power of the “negatively existent one” that Saul was “given” to blind someone. At the time he was working with that faction whose usual weapon was blindness, whether of the eyes or the mind. Some records of torture for those of the positive faction include burning the eyes out of any who were not of the “evil eye” or devil’s “single eye,” (not of the “two chosen by God.”)

When Saul returned from serving the “SA” or soul of SA-tan, accounting for the “Sa” symbolical beginning of his name the change also had to be made in the name where “Pa” or “Px” identified his dedication to Christ for whom that combination of letters stood, and his name was changed to Paul.

■ 287- 305

Saint Catherine of Alexandria (Michael-Soul)

Saint Catherine of Alexandria is a canonized saint in the Catholic Church who, per Christian tradition, was martyred around 305 in Alexandria, Egypt. Of course, the Church of the first Millennium was undivided. She is also recognized as the Great Martyr and Saint by the Orthodox Church.

There are no surviving primary sources attesting to her existence, but the fact that her memory, and the stories about her, have been kept alive - and handed down in the tradition - certainly confirm her existence, and her life of heroic virtue and holiness.

The young saint was born around 287 in Alexandria, Egypt. At that time, Alexandria was one of the finest cities in the world, and a center of learning and culture as well as faith.

Christian tradition states she was of noble birth, possibly a princess. As a member of the nobility, she was also educated and was an avid scholar. Around the age of fourteen, she experienced a moving vision of Mary and the infant Jesus, and she decided to become a Christian.

Although she was a teenager, she was very intelligent and gifted. When the emperor Maxentius began persecuting Christians, Catherine visited him to denounce his cruelty.

Rather than order her execution, Maxentius summoned fifty orators and philosophers to debate her. However, Catherine was moved by the power of the Holy Spirit and spoke eloquently in defense of her faith. Her words were so moving that several of the pagans converted to Christianity and were immediately executed.

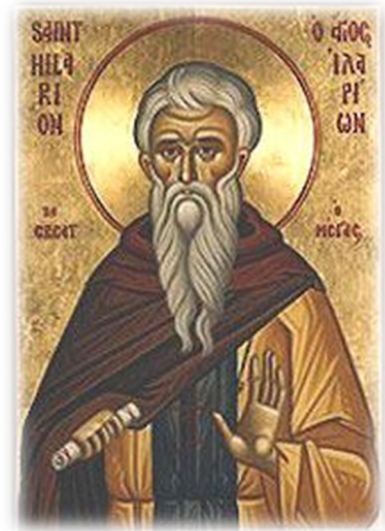

■ 291-371

Saint Hilarion (Gabriel-Soul)

Hilarion, an early Christian monk, was born to pagan parents at Tabatha, near Gaza, in southern Palestine. Sent for schooling to Alexandria, Egypt, he became acquainted with the current reputation of St. Anthony of Egypt, the pioneering monastic founder. Having sought Christian baptism, he spent some time with Anthony learning the ways of desert monkhood. After that novitiate, he returned to Palestine and set up as hermit in the wilderness near Majuma, south of Gaza. At Majuma, Hilarion put into practice the stringent regime of the Egyptian monks: prayer, labor, and works of penance. His food was 15 figs a day, no more, until after many years he realized that a little bread, vegetables and oil were a physical necessity. Cleanliness, too, he considered an inept luxury; hence he wore his tunics until they fell apart, and never washed his hair shirt, saying, “it is idle to look for cleanliness in a hair shirt.”

Basically, however, Hilarion was developing into a charismatic monastic leader, a wonderworker, and an effective missionary to the pagans of the district. Many sought him as tutor in the monastic life, and for them he set up several neighboring monasteries. But the desert began to get crowded, and he missed the peace and quiet of its early days. In 356 it was revealed to him that his old master, St. Anthony of Egypt, had died. He decided to go back to Egypt not only to visit Anthony's grave, but to seek there the quietude that he had lost in the Holy Land. After a sentimental pilgrimage to St. Anthony's old haunts, he established himself near the Nile in the province of Arcadia.

Unfortunately, his reputation had preceded him to Arcadia, and crowds once more sought him out, begging him to end, by his prayers, a three-year drought, and to heal the wounds inflicted by an army of serpents and noxious insects. He was able to help them, but soon fled to an oasis west of the Nile to escape their clamor. Popularity pursuing him even there, a year later he escaped again, this time to Sicily, and selected a site for a hermitage in a lonely inland district. Yet when his disciple St. Hesychius sought him out sometime later, he found that everybody in that area knew and admired the fugitive monk. Hesychius therefore took his master to Dalmatia in the Balkans. Finding it impossible, even there, to conceal his gifts as a wonderworker, he decamped to Cyprus. While his identity was soon discovered at Paphos, too, he at last found a safe hideout in an inaccessible place twelve miles from shore. There he died in peace some years later.

Muhammad (Gabriel-Soul)

Prophet Muhammad was born in Mecca located in the Arabian Peninsula. Since his father died before his birth and his mother died shortly thereafter, he was raised by his uncle who was from the respected tribe of Quraysh. He was raised illiterate, unable to read or write, and remained so up until his death. As he grew up, he became known as truthful, trustworthy, generous, and sincere. He was so trustworthy that he was addressed as such, Al-Ameen (Trustworthy).

Muhammad was very contemplative and he had long detested the decadence and idolatry of his society. At the age of forty, he received his first revelation from Allah through the Angel Jibreel (Gabriel). The revelations continued for twenty-three years, and they are collectively known as the Qur'aan.

As soon as he began to recite the Qur'aan and preach the truth which Allah had revealed to him, he and his small group of followers suffered persecutions from unbelievers. The persecutions grew so fierce that in the year 622 A.D., Allah gave them the command to emigrate. This emigration from Mecca to the city of Medina, some 260 miles to the north, marks the beginning of the Muslim calendar.

After several years, Muhammad and his followers were able to return to Makkah where they forgave their enemies. Before Muhammad died at the age of sixty-three, the greater part of the Arabian Peninsula had become Muslim and within a century of his death, Islam had spread to Spain in the West and as far East as China.

Khattab (Michael-Soul)

Omar ibn al-Khattab was born in Mecca to the Adi clan of the Quraysh tribe. Omar belonged to a family of average class, but he was able to become literate, and was well known for his physical strength, becoming a champion wrestler. When Muhammad first declared his message of Islam, Omar believed Islam was heretical rhetoric against the Quraysh and his ancestors, and he resolved to kill Muhammad. He was stopped on his way to Muhammad's house, however, with news of his sister's conversion to Islam. Omar was initially angered by the news, but after reading some of the Qur'aan he was instantly changed. Rather than killing Muhammad, he determined to accept Islam.

Omar was part of the first emigration to Medina, and became an important companion of Muhammad. He participated in all of the Muslim battles against the Quraysh. Abu Bakr became the first successor to Muhammad. During Abu Bakr's short reign as caliph, Omar was an important advisor to him, and Abu Bakr selected him as his successor prior to his death. Omar reigned as caliph from 633 until his assassination in 644. Omar's time as caliph saw the Islamic empire grow at an unprecedented rate, taking Iraq and parts of Iran from the Sassanids, and thereby ending that empire, and taking Egypt, Palestine, Syria, North Africa and Armenia from the Byzantines. Omar also codified Islamic law, and was known for his simple lifestyle and modest living. A famous story tells of him arriving in Jerusalem walking beside his camel upon which his servant was sitting.

Omar was murdered by a Persian slave who was angered by a personal quarrel with him; he stabbed the caliph six times as Omar led prayers in Masjid al Nabawi. Omar died two days later, and is buried alongside Muhammad and Abu Bakr.

Fatima al-Zahra (Gabriel-Soul)

Muhammedans have the greatest respect for Fatima al-Zahra, the daughter of Muhammad. There have been many women who have made an everlasting mark on the history of civilization and humankind. They have been great in various aspects. Yet, many Muhammedans believe this woman contributed more than perhaps any other woman, while she was not more than a young girl. Her prayers and supplications were no less than the most inspiring words of poetry to the God she adored. Her eloquence of speech, her bravery and strength, her loving tenderness towards her noble father, husband and children are what philosophers still write and speak of in terms of a cure for the ills of today's society. She was filled with spiritual devotion, as is becoming of any true saint. Her actions were her belief, without fault or mistake. She rose above the frail diversions of this life and was truly a remarkable example for all women.

The Holy Prophet, who spoke only that which had been revealed to him, addressed Fatima in these words: "Oh Fatima! Allah, the Mighty, the Exalted, is angered at the one who makes you angry and is satisfied with the one who pleases you".

The day after the burial of Rasulullah, a close disciple of Muhammad, his murderers raided the house of Fatima al-Zahra. In the process they set fire to the door of the house, and crushed her between the door and the wall. Fatima al-Zahra, who was heavily pregnant at the time, sustained a number of horrific injuries, as a result of which she died later. Her unborn baby son died instantly in the course of the assault!!!

1194-1253

Saint Francis of Assisi (Gabriel-Soul)

In Rome one finds a picture of the vision of St. Francis who saw himself taking the Christ from the cross. He has served many lives that Christ might be acceptable on earth without the customary crosses of misunderstandings. God's television method of proving past lives, which are called Akashic records, show that St. Francis was one incarnation of Virgin Mary. It is said that he always kept a bed for The Child hoping that He would be given to him in that age. He no doubt was "given" to understand that he was an incarnation of Virgin Mary.

In the Saint Francis incarnation, the Gabriel soul was promised that The Child would be returned from the heavens. St. Francis must have recognized his own soul status as an incarnation of Virgin Mary, for it is recorded that he always kept a bed for The Child and watched the skies for His return. Because St. Francis is known by the Occult World as an incarnation of Virgin Mary, the story is done again showing him chaining the devil.

1375-1391

White Dove (Gabriel-Soul)

White Dove, the sixteen-year-old Mother who produced what the Indians considered an illegitimate child, died of shock which the incarnate Devil of that time forced upon her. Akashic records show that Hiawatha was an incarnation of Gabriel when he went to "sheep of other pastures ye know not of." A history of His life will prove that "by their works ye shall know them”. White Dove took another incarnation very soon and grew up to work with Him as His wife, but Devil forces came against her again while Hiawatha was on a hunting trip and she was taken away from Him the second time in one life.

■ 1391-1450

Hiawatha (Gabriel-Soul manifesting in “His Name”)

The discussion about body types brings the necessity of explanations of how the “Good Indians” (of red body lives) had been higher initiate souls who offered to be born among the Indians to help the process of their evolution toward better conditions. White people who did wrong by the red men were required, in later lives, to take bodies of the red underprivileged peoples to make up for what injustices they did to the Indians in a previous life. Likewise, souls of the Hiawatha initiation, who asked to serve The Great Spirit as a Guide for Indians, was rewarded for his services to the Red Men, by becoming George Washington, who proceeded to develop better conditions on this continent for the “Good Indians” who would later be born in high places to help their people from a more advantageous position. Rewards then became effected by reincarnation as Indian chiefs, or leaders, under whose authority the evil white men’s souls of the past had to reincarnate as underprivileged Indians of our day. There is absolutely no escape from the laws of karma.

As North American Indians, Master Minds incarnated among the red men to try to raise their standards. Failing to accomplish from that angle, they then incarnated as White Statesmen. Faithful followers of the Indian incarnations were “chosen” to reincarnate as White Leaders. Hiawatha then became George Washington, having also once been the Indian Chief “EE-da-how” from whom the State of Idaho got its name. Some good souls faithful to The Great Spirit remained in Indian bodies to try to help the laggards to better conditions.

■ 1412-1431

Joan of Arc (Gabriel-Soul)

St. Joan of Arc was guided by voices she heard. She had apparitions of the saints whose voices these were: St. Michael, St. Margaret (another incarnation of her own Oversoul), and St. Catherine (an incarnation of Michael).

It was at St. Catherine's of Fierbois, a shrine to the martyr, that St. Joan found her sword. She dug beneath the stone and found the old sword used by Charles Martel when he fought the Moslems, and which Joan would take in battle to free her French people from the English invaders.

Joan served the two Positive Masters of Wisdom (Michael and Gabriel) in saving France, while the third member of that triad (Lucifer – incarnated as Bishop Cauchon) stood by to make certain that she was burned at the stake.

■ 1452-1519

Leonardo Da Vinci (Gabriel-Soul)

Those with “eyes to See,” will be able to find some records which survived the devastating powers of the “anti” faction. However many were destroyed, there are still a few records which can prove the “Truth to Make Free.” When the negative faction became wise to one method of Positive Sculptors, or painters trying to leave records of “Truth,” another way was figured out each time to forward the cause. The coy smile on the pristine face of the Mona Lisa was Da Vinci’s way of showing he knew what he was doing. While telling still another story to “Wise Men” whom it was known would understand, it silently told something the world will not be ready to accept for a long time. The picture was unrecognized beyond the fine art which is generally thought to make its astonishing value.

■ 1469-1543

Francesco Granacci (Gabriel-Soul)

Many deceived great souls have served the Devil, and were the “blind” who “led the blinded” into breaking from the Mother Churches. This many times called the Great Archangels into incarnation to try to prevent disaster. An instance of this is Michael, Gabriel and Raphael who took physical forms to help their beloved Church in Rome. They were known as Michaelangelo and His helper Francesco Granacci, and Raphael the artist. THEY left esoteric truths in stone and canvas to prove the Truth of the “first Book” and the final destruction of the “second Book”.

The Sixteenth Century proved to be a very busy Age for the Great of the Earth. While Gabriel, in his Francesco Granacci incarnation, worked alongside Michael and Raphael in Rome, He was also working from a different angle, in Germany, to bring more pressure to bear against the reigning Black Pope... as Martin Luther!!!

■ 1475-1564

Michaelangelo (Michael-Soul)

Michaelangelo was born in the territory of Arezzo, in Tuscany. At an early age he became the pupil of Domenico Ghirlandajo, a celebrated artist of his day. He soon displayed such uncommon merit that Lorenzode' Medici took him into his service. His mastery over the grand and terrible has never been equaled, and his correct design and knowledge of anatomy has not been attained by other artists.

The Archangel Michael incarnated in order to help in a crisis in the Great Church at Rome when there was much danger. The Pope at that time was an incarnation of the evil one who always had been the devastation of given religions. Michaelangelo remained “unspotted” and with Raphael who accompanied Him into incarnation, did much to leave truths in stone and done on canvas for those whom it was expected would “have eyes to see.” Michael became very disgusted with the Pope and dared paint him with donkey ears.

Michaelangelo discontinued painting in his 75th year, and terminated his brilliant career at Rome at the advanced age of 89. He was splendidly interred in that city by Cosmo, Duke of Tuscany, but his remains were subsequently, by command of that prince, removed to Florence, and deposited beneath a magnificent monument embellished with three statues representing painting, sculpture, and architecture.

■ 1483-1546

Martin Luther (Gabriel-Soul)

Gabriel, when incarnating as the reformer Martin Luther, tried to put straight from a different angle the original teachings of the Catholic Church that was being plundered by the Black Pope, Leo X, an incarnation of Lucifer in that Age. Martin tried to reform the Roman Catholic Church from within, and when that failed, he turned his efforts toward bringing religious freedom to his oppressed countrymen. In translating the Bible into German to make it available to all Germans, he discovered the power of the written Word. After making this discovery, Gabriel planned a future life, and would soon return as the world's most famous bard, William Shakespeare.

But there was work of a more scientific nature that needed to be accomplished before that time, and another shirt was standing by... Paracelsus, the famous alchemist.

■ 1493-1541

Paracelsus (Gabriel-Soul)

Mdm. Blavatsky says on page 297 of Vol. 1 of The Secret Doctrine: "But Truth, however distasteful to the generally blind majorities, has always had her champions, ready to die for her, and it is not the Occultist who will protest its adoption by Science under whatever new name. But, until absolutely forced on the notice and acceptance of Scientists, many an Occult truth will be tabooed, as the phenomena of the Spiritualists and other psychic manifestations were, to be finally appropriated by its ex-traducers without the least acknowledgments or thanks." Nitrogen has added considerably to chemical knowledge, but its discoverer, Paracelsus, is to this day called a "quack."

Phlippus Aureolus Paracelsus was a Swiss physician and alchemist whose work marks the beginning of the emergence of the science of chemistry from alchemy. He was a member of the Hermetic cult, and his works are largely unintelligible. He believed in the "three principles" of Arabian alchemists, consisting of mercury (characterized by fluidity, heaviness, and metallicity), sulphur (characterized by the principle of inflammability), and salt (characterized by the principles of solidity and relative chemical inertness). Nonetheless, he is known as the father of modern pharmacology because of his work in the chemical treatment of medical ailments.

Shakespeare (Gabriel-Soul)

Shakespeare's understanding of esoteric secrets, incarnations and Akashic records made his great works possible. Much of his work expressed trials of that great soul who martyred many Causes in His Name.

Reincarnation for the purpose of schooling the soul toward perfection enough to attain "eternal life," with all its rewards, including Cosmic Power, must be promoted on a large scale if the world is to be made ready for the Advent of Christ and His Great Plan for "Truth to Make Free." Since the fall of Lucifer in October 1955 it is safe to give this information to the world. Previously it was considered too dangerous because "the Truth" Jesus said "would make free" concerned what the negative faction always worked frantically to keep the world from discovering. Because it was so dangerous to give the information, the Positive faction many times veiled it in art works when they incarnated as artists. If poets they wove it into their poetry, while sculptors did it in stone. Shakespeare told it in his plays. In a previous life, having been Hamlet, whose father was killed by the negative member of the first triad who always plundered, or took over the rights (stole the birthright) of others of that group, he told it in plays. Hamlet's problem was shown as trying to tell on the devilish one without becoming a victim himself.

Records left by the Positive faction honor the genius of every Age, while the negative faction who always followed to plunder, twisted facts to defame those who earned the honor and then left records to credit leaders of their own faction. Efforts such as "Marlow is Shakespeare," or playing up Moses and defaming Aaron and Jesus are examples of how the negative faction diverted honor and respect from those who earned it and credited those who didn't in all Ages.

■ 1755 The Deportation of the Acadians from Grand-Pré, Canada

Separated Newlyweds Evangeline (Michael-Soul) and Gabriel (Gabriel-Soul)

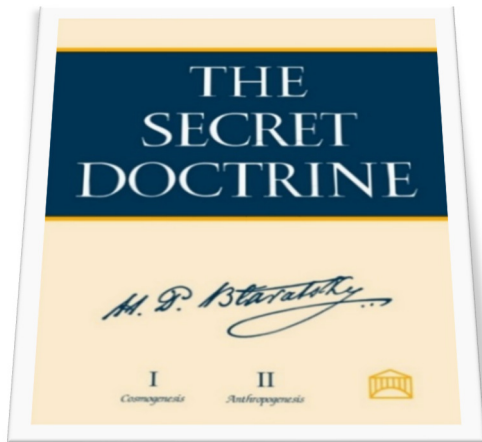

The famous American writer Henry Wadsworth Longfellow wrote the epic poem Evangeline: A Tale of Acadie. The writer was proofed over and he was sent to tell a story about those three (Michael, Gabriel, Lucifer) in the area of Grand-Pré, on the shores of the Bay of Fundy, Canada: the newlyweds Evangeline (Michael-Soul) and Gabriel (Gabriel-Soul), and his father Smith the Mighty Man (Lucifer-Soul), with the anvil and hammer, an incarnation of Moses (Morya); Kuthumi was Evangeline at that time, and Hilarion was Gabriel, and they were a young couple in love. The day they were married, they got separated and were sent away to the British colonies of America on different ships. Evangeline then became a nurse and she combed the country over trying to find him. Smith the Mighty Man, who thought he was helping his son, as he knew his son was trying to find Evangeline, and knew Evangeline was trying to find him, must have gotten a message from his man upstairs to send his son out a certain way that day when Evangeline was going down river. It caused Gabriel to go away from where she was coming where they would have met again. Morya didn't want them to meet up because they would have reproduced positive children, and he was trying to keep that from happening. That kept them from meeting for all the remaining years of their life, until Gabriel was on his deathbed. Evangeline came to a place where all these people were, she was waiting on them, and Gabriel's face changed from the old man on the deathbed, and she saw him, and knew him.

■ The first constitution of the United States of America, November 15, 1777.

Helena Petrovna Blavatsky (H.P.B.) in her book The Secret Doctrine published in 1888 writes that it may be useful to agree upon the names to be given to the Continents on which the four great Races, which preceded our Adamic Race were born, lived, and died. Therefore, it is considered more convenient to adopt, for each of the four Continents constantly referred to, a name more familiar to the cultured reader. It is proposed, then, to call the first continent, or rather the first terra firma on which the first Race was evolved by the divine progenitors “The Imperishable Sacred Land.” The second continent was called the “Hyperborean”, the third “Lemuria”, the fourth “Atlantis” and the fifth, ours, “America” which also includes part of Europe.

Both the Positive and negative factions used symbolism to tell their stories throughout the ages. One feather meant “Truth,” where two feathers were used to symbolize the two souls who functioned as one. These were Michael and Gabriel on higher planes, as well as whatever physical forms were used to manifest them on earth. For more protection, the King of Kings frequently manifested as “hidden”. Sometimes when They had two forms on earth, both functioned as “hidden”, an “unspotted” necessity to get the work for an incarnation accomplished. Wise Men watching for incarnations of the “two” (souls) whom Scriptures declare God would choose to “put down evil” and begin a change in world affairs, have no trouble recognizing those “two” puppets of Michael and Gabriel in the forms of Benjamin Franklin (Michael), the physical plane manifestation for that time, and George Washington, the physical plane puppet for Gabriel. They were known as Benjamin Franklin, “The Father” and George Washington, “The Son.”

■ 1706-1790

Benjamin Franklin (Michael-Soul)

A little reflection on the personality who is well recognized as giving material lighting to the world (electricity), and a review of the wisdom and principles Benjamin Franklin stood for (re: Thirteen Necessary Virtues), is surely sufficient to identify him as the physical manifestation of “The Light Giver” in a spiritual sense, namely The King of Kings. In his later years he became vocal as an abolitionist and in 1787 began to serve as President of the Pennsylvania Society for Promoting the Abolition of Slavery.

Benjamin Franklin was twenty-three years of age when he wrote his own clever epitaph showing his conviction of reincarnation:

The Body of Benjamin Franklin

(Like the cover of an old book, its contents torn out, and stripped of its lettering and gilding)

Lies Here Food for Worms

Yet the work itself shall not be lost,

For it will (as he believed) appear once more in a New

And more beautiful Edition

Corrected and Amended by the Author

George Washington (Gabriel-Soul)

Sun worshippers thought of the soul who served as the physical plane instrument of God as the Sun descending to earth in human form which they called “Osiris.” The Moon god then on earth was called “Isis,” the Eve-il one who “cut Osiris to pieces” as the story is related about the sufferings of the Son of God of that Age at the hands of the Lucifer puppet called Isis, who gave “riddles and plagues.” The second Isis was the soul known as Virgin Mary, who had inherited the World Mother position when Eve or Lucifer “fell” the first time because of trying to “shine in Michael’s stead,” a record incorporated in many religious teachings. In every life the Eve or Lucifer soul took advantage of the Son of God and separated the Disciples, if possible, which was expressed by stating that “Osiris” was “cut to pieces.” The Pieces were the Disciples. The story then goes on to relate how “the second Isis (soul once known as Virgin Mary) searched the world for the pieces of Osiris and built a Shrine wherever she found one of them.” Since there were the first four triads, or twelve Disciples, she became the thirteenth piece. The thirteen first States, as well as the thirteen first stars and stripes of the American flag, bore out the same story because it was the content of the soul of George Washington who, in fact, was one of the souls known as a “piece” of the soul of “Osiris.” One has only to compare the pictures of George Washington with that of the Sphinx to discover where that soul was serving God in the beginning history of the United States.

■ 1790-1832

Junior Champollion (Gabriel-Soul)

In 1822, Jean-Francois Champollion deciphered part of the Rosetta stone, which is a black basalt slab bearing an inscription that was the key to the deciphering of Egyptian hieroglyphics and thus to the foundation of modern Egyptology. Found by French troops in 1799 near the town of Rosetta in Lower Egypt, it is now in the British Museum, London. The stone was inscribed in 196 BC with a decree praising the Egyptian king Ptolemy V. Because the inscription appears in three scripts, hieroglyphic, demotic, and Greek, scholars were able to decipher the hieroglyphic and demotic versions by comparing them with the Greek version.

■ 1805-1844

Joseph Smith (Gabriel-Soul)

“The King of Kings” provided a carefully arranged itinerary to prove to Frances Sande that He had incarnated many times both before and after the time when The Son of God was called Jesus. He followed her and explained what He had guided her to discover. Christ made sure she found many records of the same type where the two Angels, Michael and Gabriel tried to re-establish “Truth” as when They Called Joseph Smith to serve as the channel for Those Above. Saints of old or “Latter Day Saints” (now commonly thought of as Mormons) reincarnated to help the puppet of Archangels as He (incarnate Gabriel) again martyred the Cause His Soul was dedicated to serve. They gave Joseph Smith this “Truth to Make Free” in the form of two tablets, which Moroni, a manifestation of Lucifer, didn’t want him to have, so he destroyed the tablets. “The King of Kings” made sure Frances understood why Moroni destroyed these tablets, just as the same soul always followed The Saints of old to destroy information contrary to what he wanted them to believe. It will stagger the world to realize just how great the soul of Joseph Smith was in the sight of God whom he served in many other great lives.

■ 1809-1865

Abraham Lincoln (Michael-Soul)

Abraham Lincoln, the 16th president of the United States, guided his country through the most devastating experience in its national history - the Civil War. He is considered by many historians to have been the greatest American president of all times. An incarnation of the Michael-Soul, he returned to the United States to continue the work begun in his previous life as Benjamin Franklyn to abolish slavery in America. He issued the Emancipation Proclamation on January 1, 1863, as the nation approached its third year of bloody civil war. The proclamation declared "that all persons held as slaves" within the rebellious states "are, and henceforward shall be free."

■ 19th Century

Kuthumi – “Koot Hoomi” (Michael-Soul)

Mahatma Kuthumi was a Punjabi whose family had settled in Kashmir. He led a secluded life. Kuthumi attended Oxford University in 1850 and had contributed "The Dream of Ravan" to The Dublin University Magazine around 1854, prior to returning to his homeland.

His remaining years were spent at his lamasery in Shigatse, Tibet, where his contact with the outside world included didactic writings sent by mail to some of his devoted students. Those letters are now on file with the British Museum. Along with Master Hilarion, He frequently appeared to H. P. Blavatsky to assist her in “unveiling” the “first Isis,” a.k.a. Master Morya, a manifestation of Lucifer, that third member of the original Triad.

Kuthumi often appeared “in and through” Frances Sande, the reincarnate Mother, as she continued the work of unveiling the First Isis in the Last Age. One moment He can be a tiny baby, another time a small CHILD, or young man; and many times, is seen wearing a beard and robe all Christians declare is Christ.

■ 1831-1891

H. P. Blavatsky (Gabriel-Soul)

Physical plane channel for both the Michael-Soul and the Gabriel-Soul

Madame Helena Petrovna Blavatsky established the Theosophical Society with Col. Olcott for the purpose of giving enough information so religious leaders would be made aware of the danger of deceptions plaguing every cult, creed and religion ever established to restore Truth on this planet.

Mrs. Blavatsky’s life was a valiant effort to serve God in restoration and compilation of Truths she searched for all over the world, just as the soul did in the Great Pyramid days. Wise Men of Egypt who recognized her as the reincarnate Thoth, symbolized as the Sphinx, called her “The Sphinx of the nineteenth century.”

But Lucifer puppets of the time performed the usual misdeeds of swallowing up that great Organization which would have been of infinite benefit for right understandings to make the coming of Christ possible. Annie Besant and Leadbeater were the physical forms used to channel deceptions, take over and change records to suit the ideas of the great deceiver. Master Morya, through his physical puppet Annie Besant, was the brain of Lucifer working to keep Truth from being discovered. It was he who convinced Mdm. Blavatsky that she should will herself out of incarnation, for in no other way could he get her out of the way.

After Besant took over the Theosophical Society, the third volume of “Isis Unveiled” which was ready for the press was destroyed. It would have unveiled the works of “the negatively existent one,” so he used Besant to do the “take-over” for that time. Nothing is lost in Divine Mind and “The Great” always reincarnate to begin from another angle if the negative faction were successful in a previous life.

Blavatsky reincarnated as Mrs. Frances F. Sande with a determination to expose the deceptions in the Last Age.

■ 1905-1994

Frances Fisher Sande (Gabriel-Soul)

"The Child" manifested in and through her in the Last Age

"And the Lion shall lie down with the Lamb"

“The lion” was the soul known as The Mother, and “the lamb” was The Child. The Scriptural prophecy is about what would take place among the incarnations of those souls after Lucifer’s Cosmic Power was revoked for one thousand years in October 1955. In the Kabbala “T-Zion” is the soul of The Mother, sometimes called “Mt. Zion.” She was the IAO of Ancient Wisdom teachings, the letters being the first, middle and last of IDAHO. Some Scriptural prophecy states that the “cojoining” of the two souls known as King of Kings (ZEUS) and Virgin Mary (Ganymede) would be “On Mt. Ida of a new continent.” The “Ide” festival in Calcutta, India, July 28, is the same idea as that of American Indians who hold the Sun Dance on the same date. It honors the Indian chief called EEDAHOW, once Hiawatha, the savior of the Indians. This was the same soul who as Noah warned of the flood, later incarnating among the Indians to warn that white men would take their land if they would not lay down war clubs and live in peace. He is the soul known on higher planes as Gabriel who always “blew the horn” of warning in every Age.

■ Last Age and New Age: The Child: “Aja the Unborn” (Michael-Soul)

“The First Who Will be Last, and the Last Who Will be First”

The Child, the Son of God, who comes to earth through Cosmic Birth in this Age. “A Little Child to Lead Them” has always been the way He has served as King or Spiritual Leader of various peoples at different times, and HE has now come to the whole world as “King of Kings” and at last all mankind can begin to learn brotherhood and realize peace under His leadership.

*Blessings in His Name!!!
Not “The End”, but a “New Beginning”*

The Lotus, or Padma, is, moreover, a very ancient and favourite simile for the Kosmos itself, and also for man. The popular reasons given are, firstly, the fact just mentioned, that the Lotus-seed contains within itself a perfect miniature of the future plant, which typifies the fact that the spiritual prototypes of all things exist in the immaterial world before those things become materialised on Earth. Secondly, the fact that the Lotus plant grows up through the water, having its root in the Ilus, or mud, and spreading its flower in the air above. The Lotus thus typifies the life of man and also that of the Kosmos; for the Secret Doctrine teaches that the elements of both are the same, and that both are developing in the same direction. The root of the Lotus sunk in the mud represents material life, the stalk passing up through the water typifies existence in the astral world, and the flower floating on the water and opening to the sky is emblematic of spiritual being.

The Path to Spiritual Blossoming - The Secret Doctrine by H. P. Blavatsky, Volume I, pages 57 and 58.

New Age Wisdom Understandings - Five Upper Planes of Consciousness and Being

The Sixth and the Seventh Planes counting downwards: Life in the Astral World, and Life on Earth

INNER

7th Dhyana Cohan (Archangel)
 6th Eternal Life (Master of Wisdom *)
 5th Degree Initiation of the individual Soul
 4th Degree Initiation of the Individual Soul
 Graduation of the Individual Soul
 Astral Being in the Astral World
 Human Personality in the Material Life

* Mastery over Space, Matter and Time

OUTER

The Highest Plane
 2nd Highest Plane
 3rd Highest Plane
 4th Highest Plane
 5th Plane Downwards
 6th Plane Downwards
 7th Plane Downwards
 5th Upper Plane (Fifth Heaven)
 4th Upper Plane (Fourth Heaven)
 3rd Upper Plane (Third Heaven)
 2nd Upper Plane (Second Heaven)
 1st Upper Plane (Entrance into Heaven)
Life in the Astral World
Life on Earth